Amendment to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

OMB NO. 1105-0004

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public. Finally, the Attorney General intends, at the earliest possible opportunity, to make these public documents available on the Internet on the Department of Justice World Wide Web site.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Dear Ohad and Eli:

018002

We are very pleased that the Government of Israel, Economic Mission (the "GOI"), has engaged Arnold & Porter (the "Firm") to provide legal services and international trade advisory services to it and certain services to the Economic Mission in New York. The said services will be provided under the supervision of the Economic Office of the Israeli Embassy in Washington. The purpose of this letter is to set forth our mutual understanding as to the terms of this Agreement and the basis on which our fees and related expenses will be charged with respect to the above-mentioned engagement.

97 JUL 09 AM 9:20

1. Term

The term of this Agreement shall be for a period of one year commencing as of January 1, 1997, and terminating on December 31, 1997. However, either party shall have the right to cancel this Agreement on 60 days prior written notice to the other.

2. Fee Calculation

The Firm will charge the GOI for our legal and trade advice services and expenses on the basis of a retainer in the amount of $9,833.33 per month.

3. Special or Separate Projects

Special or separate projects that are outside the scope of the retainer will be compensated for separately if advance approval is received in writing for us to conduct and be compensated for such project and a budget is provided. If any such project is undertaken, we would charge you at not more than our usual and customary hourly rates in effect at the time, less a ten percent discount, exclusive of expenses in accordance with a pre-approved budget.

4. Reimbursement for Expenses

The retainer shall include normal expenses incurred by the Firm in performance of its services. It is understood that the Firm's international travel will have to be approved by the Economic Minister prior to their execution. Any such travel so approved will be reimbursed to us.

5. Statements for Fees and Expenses

On a regular basis, generally every month, the Firm will send you a statement covering our fee charges and expenses. All such statements are due and payable within 30 days following your receipt of them. Our retainer amount for fees and expenses should be paid at the beginning of each month.

* * *

If you have any questions about the terms of the engagement as described above, I hope you will feel free to raise them with me as soon as possible, and, during the course of the engagement, I would hope that you will feel equally free to raise promptly with me any questions you have about our statements. If the terms of the engagement are acceptable to you, I would appreciate it if you would sign and return to me the enclosed copy of this letter evidencing the agreement to these terms.

Once again, let me say how pleased we are that you have engaged Arnold & Porter in this matter.

Sincerely your,

ARNOLD & PORTER

Paul S. Berger
