Mr. Bourdrez has considerable contacts amongst U.S. industrialists and extensive experience in investment promotion work. He will be able to secure considerable U.S. investment for Singapore.

Proposed U.S. Investment Promotion Programme

It is proposed with the Board's approval to appoint Mr. Joseph Bourdrez as the Board's investment promotion director in the U.S. from June 1, 1966. He would work with the Investment Promotion and Projects Divisions in Singapore for two months before assuming duties in the U.S. from 1st September 1966. Mr. Bourdrez will have the assistance of a U.S. Investment Promotion Officer as an assistant and an efficient secretary who will handle all the office whilst he and the Promotion Officer travel extensively all over the U.S. making contacts and referring specific proposals or project inquiries back to Singapore for information and direction. The duties of Mr. Bourdrez and his assistant would include:

General promotion

1. Informing appropriate industrial and financial circles of favourable conditions for investment and investment possibilities in Singapore.
2. Co-ordinating all work on enquiries and investment promotion activities with the Board's other honorary representatives in the U.S. and refer them back to Singapore.

Specific promotion

1. To interest U.S. industrialists in specific investment projects emanating from Singapore and to assist and advise them in carrying out such investment.

2. To induce U.S. industrialists to investigate Singapore's conditions for locating profitable manufacturing and marketing operations and assist them in finalising feasible projects as a result of such investigations.

In the carrying out of these functions, he will be provided with complete documentation and project information from Singapore. The programme would also be backed by memberships in prominent U.S. Industrial Associations and direct mail activity as groundwork for Mr. Bourdrez's personal contact promotion. All investment promotion activities to be carried out under this programme will be under the name of "Singapore Investment Promotion Centre".
