Amendment to Registration Statement
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

OMB No. 1105-0004

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney Genreral transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Re: Engagement Letter

Dear Tony:

We are pleased that the Department of Trade and Industry of the Republic of the Philippines has retained Patton Boggs, L.L.P. to represent it in contacting major private U.S. business and financial institutions for the purpose of facilitating their investments in the Philippines, under the direction of the Secretary of Trade and Industry and the Philippine Embassy. I will coordinate this project working with other partners, associates and legal assistants, as appropriate, under my supervision. We will work closely with you and your Embassy, the Department of Trade and Industry, and will cooperate with others you may designate.

Attached is the consultation agreement with Patton Boggs, L.L.P., provided by DTI, which I have duly executed on behalf of Patton Boggs, L.L.P. This agreement is effective from May 1, 1996 and extends for one year. Monthly compensation to Patton Boggs, L.L.P. will be $29,166.66 (including all professional fees, project related expenses and administrative costs, with the first and last monthly payments due at the beginning of the contract. These sums will be remitted by electronic bank wire to the favor of Patton Boggs, L.L.P.'s bank, Nation's Bank, 1801 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037, ABA # 054001204, account number 1933061173.

If these terms and conditions are acceptable, I would appreciate your acknowledging acceptance of them by signing this letter and returning to me an executed and authenticated copy of the DTI consultation agreement. If you have any questions about these terms or would like to discuss them further, please call me as soon as possible.

We look forward to continue working with the Philippine government to achieve your trade and investment objectives.

Sincerely,

Philip S. Kaplan
for PATTON BOGGS, L.L.P.

AGREED TO AND ACCEPTED:

Antonio I. Basilio
Minister and Deputy Chief of Mission of the Republic of Philippines for the Philippine Department of Trade and Industry

CONSULTANCY AGREEMENT

This Agreement signed and executed this 13th day of September, 1996, by and between:

DEPARTMENT OF TRADE AND INDUSTRY (DTI), Republic of the Philippines, with principal office at 361 Senator Gil Puyat Avenue, Makati, represented in this Agreement by Minister Antonio I. Basilio, Philippine Embassy, Washington, D.C.

PATTON BOGGS, LLP with principal address at 2550 M. Street, N.W. Washington, D.C., represented in this Agreement by Mr. Philip S. Kaplan.

WITNESSETH THAT

WHEREAS, DTI, has been mandated to create an environment conducive to sustainable industrial growth and to generate jobs in globally competitive industries;

WHEREAS, DTI, in order to attain its desired objective to spearhead its economic goals and targets, needs the services of Consultants in providing information and advise and in making representations on behalf of the DTI on matters relating to U.S. trade policies for the purpose of facilitating trade between the Philippines and the United States;

WHEREAS, CONSULTANTS, possess the technical knowledge and expertise in rendering desired services needed by DTI.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the foregoing premises and mutual covenants hereinafter contained, the parties hereto agree and stipulate that:

1. DTI engages the services of Patton Boggs, LLP (hereinafter referred to as Consultant) effective 01 May 1996 for an initial period of one year. Consultant may continue to represent business and financial clients in the Philippines but during his assignment shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any other business or professional activities in its or another party's behalf contrary to the performance of his duties under this Agreement;

2. Consultant shall perform the Services under this Agreement in accordance with the Final Terms of Reference set forth in Annex A incorporating all revisions as agreed upon between contracting parties;

3. Consultant shall fulfill its obligations under this Agreement by using its specialized technical knowledge and in accordance to the best accepted professional standards;

4. Consultant shall exercise all reasonable skill, care and diligence in the discharge of the duties agreed to be performed and shall always work in the best interests of the Government;

5. Consultant shall keep accurate and systematic records and accounts in respect of the Services in such form and detail as is customary and sufficient to establish accurately that the cost and expenditures under this Agreement have been duly incurred; allocated in item 10 which will be billed and paid in U.S. dollars at U.S.$29,167.00 per month, with the first and last payment due at the beginning of the Contract;

12. Consultant will submit periodic invoices for services rendered to the DTI with such supporting documents as may be reasonable, requested by the DTI. Said invoices shall be duly certified by the Consultant and shall contain a certificate to be executed by the authorized officer of DTI, certifying the terms of the Agreement;

13. Whereas, it shall be necessary for the purpose of this Agreement to compute one currency in terms of another, the conversion shall be made on the basis of official exchange rates at the time of each disbursement;

14. DTI shall assist the Consultant with respect to any necessary entry and exit visas, residence permits, exchange and other travel documents required for his/her stay in the Philippines;

15. DTI shall make available to the Consultant its personnel, office facilities, office data which may be required for the successful and timely completion of the services;

16. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as establishing or creating between the DTI and the Consultant, the relationship of employer and employee or principal and agent, it being understood that the position of the Consultant and anyone else performing the Services is that of an independent Contractor;

17. The Consultant holds the Government free from any and all liabilities, suits, actions, demand or damages arising from death or injuries to persons or properties, or any loss resulting from or caused by said personnel incident to or in connection with the services under this Agreement; The Consultant agrees to indemnify, protect and defend at its own expenses the DTI and its agents from and against all actions, claims and liabilities arising out of acts done by the Consultant in the performance of the Services including the use of any copyrighted materials, patented invention, article or appliances and conformance with registration requirements for foreign agents, if applicable;

18. The Consultant will conform to all applicable laws and will take prompt corrective actions with regards to any violations called to their attention;

19. Reports and all relevant data and other supporting records or materials compiled or prepared in the course of performances of the Services shall be the absolute properties of the DTI in accordance with the existing laws and shall not be used by the Consultant for the purposes unrelated to this Agreement without the prior written approval of the DTI.

Corollarily, the DTI shall inform the Consultant of any use of subject documents other than those for which they were intended or prepared under this Agreement;
