Mr. President,

This letter is to confirm the retention of Patton, Boggs & Blow by the Government of Guatemala.

1. PATTON, BOGGS & BLOW shall provide advice and assistance about the relationship between Guatemala and the United States. The Firm's responsibilities will include keeping officials of the Government of Guatemala informed about pertinent issues affecting that relationship, as they may take place within the executive and legislative branches of the United States Government, and solely as directed by Guatemalan officials, the Firm will communicate with those branches from time-to-time about issues of mutual concern. The Firm will also provide advice and general guidance about trade, aid and credit issues affecting Guatemala including assisting Guatemala in its relationship with the International Monetary Fund.

2. The Firm will, if requested by officials of the Government of Guatemala, undertake specific projects on matters involving credit for Guatemala from United States and international lending institutions including guidance concerning relationships with those institutions.

3. The Firm will, if requested by officials of the Government of Guatemala, undertake specific projects involving issues of international trade, such as the United States -Guatemalan bilateral trade relationship as affected by the Caribbean Basin Initiative, the proposed Andean Pact trade preference, other initiatives concerning trade within the Western Hemisphere and assistance concerning inter-Government cooperation within Central America, as affected by U.S. Government programs.

4. The fees of Patton, Boggs & Blow for the services set forth in paragraph 1 above shall be $220,000.00 per annum, plus disbursements incurred in carrying out those responsibilities. This agreement shall commence on the date that it is accepted and agreed to by the Government of Guatemala, with the understanding that the agreement may be terminated by the Government of Guatemala at any time after the expiration of the first year. Payment shall be made monthly in an amount equal to one-twelfth of the annual fees, plus disbursements which shall be invoiced monthly.

Respectfully yours,

David C. Todd
