Re: Engagement Letter

Dear Ambassador Rivero:

Thank you for retaining Patton Boggs, L.L.P. as counsel to represent the Republic of Peru. We look forward to working with you on this engagement.

To ensure that your government and we have a common understanding of the terms of our representation and to comply with the codes of professional responsibility for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the standard terms of engagement for legal services to be provided by Patton Boggs, L.L.P. The terms of engagement cover such matters as our procedure for handling potential conflicts of interest, fees, costs and expenses, billing arrangements and terms of payment. Please review the document carefully to ensure that it comports with your understanding.

This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed terms of engagement. If you have any questions concerning the matters discussed in either document, please contact me promptly so that I may address them with you. Frank Samolis, Greg Laughlin and I will be primarily responsible for the work done on behalf of Peru. Other partners, associates and legal assistants may assist in the matter as necessary and appropriate.

As we have agreed, the Republic of Peru will retain Patton Boggs for a twelve month period effective October 15, 1999, at a monthly retainer of $30,000, plus disbursements. The twelve month contract will be extended automatically at the end of its term, unless either party notifies the other of its intention to terminate the relationship at least 60 days prior to its expiration. The initial $30,000 monthly retainer should be wire transferred to us once you have signed this letter, so that we may commence work on your behalf.

As I have previously advised you, we are not aware of any conflict of interest which might affect our ability to effectively represent Peru. As required by the D.C. Rules of Professional Conduct, we will not in the future represent another client whose interests are materially adverse to Peru in a substantially related matter without your informed consent.

If these terms and conditions, including those set forth in the terms of engagement, meet with your approval, I would appreciate your acknowledging acceptance of both documents by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter together with the retainer. If you have any questions about these terms or would like to discuss them, please call me as soon as possible.

We look forward to working with you to achieve a successful result.

Very truly yours,

Thomas Hale Boggs, Jr.
for PATTON BOGGS, L.L.P.
