Re: Engagement of Patton Boggs LLP

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Thank you for retaining Patton Boggs, LLP to represent the Embassy of Kuwait ("Embassy") on U.S.-Kuwait trade issues including assisting Kuwait on its dealings with the United States Government pursuant to the recently negotiated Trade and Investment Framework Agreement ("TIFA"), and ultimately in the negotiation and completion of a U.S.-Kuwait Free Trade Agreement ("FTA"). The scope of our engagement is outlined in my letter to you of April 30, 2004.

To ensure that the Embassy and we have a common understanding of the terms of our representation and to comply with the rules of professional conduct for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the standard terms of engagement for legal services to be provided by Patton Boggs, LLP. The terms of engagement cover such matters as our procedure for handling potential conflicts of interest, fees, costs and expenses, billing arrangements and terms of payment. Please review the document carefully to ensure that it comports with your understanding. This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed terms of engagement.

Frank Samolis, David Raboy, Joe Brand and I will be primarily responsible for the work done on behalf of the Embassy of Kuwait and will supervise the lawyers and other professionals who may work on this project. I anticipate that associates, staff attorneys, legal assistants, specialists and/or in-house consultants will assist in the matter, as needed. In addition, we may retain the services of outside consultants to assist us on this project.

We agree to undertake this work according to the following fee arrangement: From the inception of the project, $22,000 per month, to include all reasonable and ordinary expenses, payable monthly in advance. Extraordinary expenses, such as travel, will be billed separately and will not be undertaken without your prior approval. The effective date of this agreement is August 1, 2004. This contract will expire upon enactment by Congress of a US-Kuwait FTA. The terms of this agreement remain in full effect until modified by both parties or in the event of termination. Intent to terminate by either party shall be conveyed in writing with ninety (90) days advance notice.

If these terms and conditions, including those set forth in the terms of engagement, meet with your approval, I would appreciate your acknowledging acceptance of both documents by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter. If you have any questions about these terms or would like to discuss them, please call me as soon as possible so as not to impede our commencing work on your behalf.

These terms and conditions will apply to any future work we undertake for you unless we send you a new letter reflecting different terms and conditions.

We look forward to working with you to achieve a successful result.

Sincerely yours,

Edward J. Newberry
