Re: Engagement of Patton Boggs LLP

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Thank you for retaining Patton Boggs LLP to advise the Embassy of Chad with regard to improving its bilateral relations with the Executive Branch of the United States. We look forward to working with you on this engagement.

To ensure that the Embassy of Chad and we have a common understanding of the terms of our representation and to comply with the rules of professional conduct for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the standard terms of engagement for legal services to be provided by Patton Boggs LLP. The terms of engagement cover such matters as our procedure for handling potential conflicts of interest, fees, costs and expenses, billing arrangements and terms of payment. Please review the document carefully to ensure that it comports with your understanding. This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed terms of engagement.

Jude Kearney, Rodney Slater, and I will be primarily responsible for the work done on your behalf and will supervise the lawyers and other professionals who may work on this project. We anticipate that associates, staff attorneys, legal assistants, specialists and/or in-house consultants will assist in the matter.

The success of our efforts to assist Chad will depend on our full and clear understanding of its bilateral issues with the Bush Administration. Thus, the scope of work for our initial representation of Chad will involve preliminary meetings and conversations with pertinent officials in the Bush Administration during the month of August 2007. Upon completing our preliminary investigation, we will travel to N'Djamena to meet with President Deby, other officials of his government, and of course you, Mr. Ambassador, to report our findings, present a proposed action plan and discuss what fees Patton Boggs will require to implement our recommendations.

For the execution of this initial scope of representation, Patton Boggs requests a fixed retainer of US$10,000 for the month of August 2007, payable in advance, to cover our professional fees. In addition, we request advance payment in the amount of US$30,000 to cover two roundtrip business-class airfare to N'Djamena and five-day hotel/ground expenses for two senior partners. A breakdown of expenses and total payment required is provided below:

Breakdown of Expenses

Fixed retainer for professional fees for the month of August 2007	US$10,000
2 business class roundtrip airfare (approx. US$12,500/ticket x 2 people)	25,000
5 days hotel room/ ground expenses (approx. US$2500/person x 2 people)	5,000
Total Payment Required	US$40,000

If you agree with these terms and conditions, including those set forth in the standard terms of engagement, please sign both copies of this agreement, keep one original copy for your records and forward payment of US$40,000 via wire transfer to:
