Dear Jean-Pierre:

We are pleased that the Grand Magistry of the Sovereign Military Hospitaller Order of St. John of Jerusalem Rhodes and Malta (the "Order of Malta") have asked Patton Boggs LLP to represent Order of Malta in connection with status of diplomatic representation in the U.S. We look forward to working with you on this engagement.

To ensure that you and we have a common understanding of our representation and to comply with the rules of professional conduct for the jurisdictions in which we practice, I have enclosed a statement describing the Standard Terms of Engagement for Legal Services to be provided by Patton Boggs LLP. This letter supplements and modifies the enclosed Terms of Engagement. If you have any questions concerning the matters discussed in either document, please contact me promptly so that I may address them with you.

Patton Boggs will provide legal services free of charge. However, we will bill the Order of Malta quarterly for any out-of-pocket disbursements we incur in performing those services. These may include photocopying costs, messenger charges, filing fees, court costs, on-line research charges, travel expenses and other similar out-of-pocket expenses. Certain of these items may be charged at more than our direct cost to cover overhead. We would appreciate prompt payment of those amounts. We will discuss with you in advance any situation that will result in substantial costs being incurred. I will be primarily responsible for the work done and will supervise the lawyers and other professionals who may work on this project. I anticipate that associates, staff attorneys, legal assistants, specialists and/or in-house consultants will assist in the matter.

In assuming this representation, we are not aware of any conflicts of interest that would interfere with our representation of Order of Malta. Should such a conflict arise in the course of our representation, we will notify you. If you or we conclude that our representation should or must be terminated as the result of a possible conflict of interest, we will do our best to protect your interests by assisting in providing a smooth transition to new counsel.

To assist us in representing you, we ask that you agree to (i) provide complete and honest information, including information that will assist the assigned attorneys in investigating the matter; (ii) attend and be on time for all appointments and/or court dates; (iii) promptly provide the information that we will need to assist you; (iv) promptly make any decisions that may be required; (v) let us know of any changes in your financial situation which may make you ineligible for representation; and (vi) promptly notify us of any changes of address or telephone numbers.

If you agree with these terms and conditions, including those set forth in the standard terms of engagement, no further action is required. If you have any questions about these terms or would like to discuss them, please call me as soon as possible so as not to impede our commencing work on your behalf.

We look forward to working with the Order of Malta to achieve a successful result. Again, if you have any questions about our arrangement, please call me.

Yours sincerely,

Stephen Díaz Gavin
