Dr. Eckart Würzner
Lord Mayor of Heidelberg
The City of Heidelberg
Rathaus / Town Hall / Mairie
Postfach 10 55 20, D-69045 Heidelberg DE

Dear Dr. Würzner:

As you know, the U.S. Army has announced its decision to delay the inactivation of V Corps Headquarters and the conversion of U.S. Army Europe Headquarters into a deployable field army headquarters. The postponement is scheduled to continue through July 2010. This action is related to a complete reassessment of U.S. national security policy, force structure and military capabilities known as the Quadrennial Defense Review (QDR). The Pentagon also announced on August 12th that the QDR is reconsidering plans to relocate two German – based Army Brigades back to the United States. If this relocation is cancelled it would retain 42,000 U.S. soldiers in Germany and Europe. General Carter Ham has publicly stated that the planned drawdown of Army Forces in Europe to 32,000 by 2013 would be insufficient to meet the demands of operations in Iraq and Afghanistan as well as the U.S. commitments to NATO.

The Congress is in the process of completing its consideration of the Fiscal Year 2010 Military Construction Budget. The House Subcommittee on Military Construction Appropriations cancelled the $59.5 million in funding provided last year for Increment 1 of the Command and Battle Center intended for Wiesbaden. The Senate Subcommittee did not make a similar cut. That means that the Senate and House must reconcile the differences in a conference committee to begin next month.

Military construction projects must receive an authorization from Congress as well as an appropriation. The authorization is handled by the House and Senate Armed Services Committees which you met with during your visit earlier this year. The House Armed Services Committee was silent on the Wiesbaden project. However, the Senate Armed Services Committee rescinded the $59.5 million, stating:

> In fiscal year 2009 the committee fully authorized, but incrementally funded a Command and Battle Facility at Wiesbaden, Germany intended for the 7th Army Headquarters. The Army did not fund the second increment in its fiscal year 2010 request. It also did not find a number of other companion facilities which had been planned. This puts into question the entire Wiesbaden relocation plan. The committee understands the decision on relocation has been deferred pending the QDR. While the full authorization remains, the committee rescinds the fiscal year 2009 authorization for appropriations of $59.5 million.

Since the House Armed Services Committee did not take similar action, this difference also must be reconciled by the House and Senate in the conference committee to be held in September.

The President has nominated former Congressman John McHugh, a Republican from Upstate New York to be Secretary of the Army. Mr. McHugh served for 16 years on the House Armed Services Committee. His district contained a major Army installation, Fort Drum, so he is very familiar with Army issues. The President also nominated Dr. Joseph Westphal to be the Under Secretary of the Army. Dr. Westphal is the former Chancellor of the University of Maine, a former Assistant Secretary of the Army under President Clinton and a former partner of ours here at Patton Boggs. As Under Secretary, Joe will be the Chief Management Officer of the Army and very involved in Army basing decisions.

We believe we can be of assistance to the City of Heidelberg and the State of Baden – Württemberg in helping to maintain the Army's presence in the City. We can represent the City before key Congressional Members and staff to urge that the funding for Wiesbaden be cancelled and that the Army adopt the rightsizing plans put forward by you. As the budget negotiations move forward to conclusion, we can monitor them to ensure that the decision makers are aware of the most cost-effective options put forward by you and your colleagues. We can also meet with the new senior leaders of the Army to make them aware of the issues and work with them on an ongoing basis to help the Army come to the best decision for the City and the State.

I will be assisted in these efforts by Major General Mike Nardotti and Jack Deschauer with whom you met back in February. As you know from Mike's illustrious Army career, he has extensive contacts with Army leadership. Jack has worked the U.S. congressional process involving defense issues both inside the Pentagon and here at Patton Boggs. I propose a monthly retainer of $12,500.00 plus our necessary and ordinary expenses for a period of one year.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss this further, I will be glad to speak with you and your colleagues again. We all look forward to assisting you in this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas H. Boggs, Jr.
