Arab Women's Council
c/o Mrs. Hala Maksoud
Executive Director
2815 Ellicott Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20014

Dear Mrs. Maksoud:

Please let this serve as our Letter of Agreement by which Gray and Company will provide the Arab Women's Council with public relations/public affairs counsel and services.

The fee for Gray and Company services will be the aggregate sum of the hourly charges for staff services for officers and staff who participate on the account. It is agreed Gray and Company's fees and charges for public relations services from the period June 30, 1982 through July 15, 1982 shall not exceed $300,000. Gray and Company agrees to make every effort to arrange news interviews on behalf of the Arab Women's Council in at least 20 major United States cities, unless instructed otherwise by the Council. In addition, Gray and Company will attempt to arrange for media interviews or articles in major national publications and on broadcast programs during the term of the program.

Charges for staff services will range from $40 per hour for support staff to $85 to $115 an hour for account executive time, $170 an hour for supervisory time and $350 an hour for service provided by Robert K. Gray. Out-of-pocket expenses are subject to a ten percent administrative handling fee.

The fee for Gray and Company advertising services shall be the normal agency commission allocated by media.

The client agrees to pay on deposit against Gray and Company charges $50,000 at the signing of this agreement. Further, the Arab Women's Council agrees to pay in advance for estimated staff time charges, out-of-pocket expenses and advertising when requested by Gray and Company. An invoice will be rendered as of July 31, 1982 by Gray and Company. At the end of the contract, any funds remaining from monies advanced to Gray and Company from the Council after payments for staff services, out-of-pocket expenses and advertising have been made will be refunded to them.
