1/ Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

GRAY AND COMPANY

ROBERT KEITH GRAY
CHAIRMAN

October 27, 1983

Philippe Casgrain, Q.C.
Byers Casgrain
800 Victoria Square
Montreal, Canada H4Z 1A6

Dear M. Casgrain:

Please let this serve as our letter of agreement by which Gray and Company will provide the Asbestos Information Group with public relations/public affairs counsel and services.

The fee for Gray and Company services will be a monthly retainer of $2,500, payable in advance on the first of each month, plus the sum of the hourly charges for officers and staff. These manpower charges will be billed at the end of each month.

Manpower charges are exclusive of out-of-pocket expenses, which will be billed with a ten percent (10%) administrative handling fee. Any invoice unremitted for a period of sixty (60) days will incur a carrying charge of two percent (2%) per month.

Gray and Company cannot independently verify factual material supplied to it by the Asbestos Information Group or its surrogates and therefore the Asbestos Information Group will indemnify and hold harmless Gray and Company for any claim, loss, damage, expense or other legal liability based upon information, representation, reports, news releases or other material produced by the Company for your use.

This agreement will take effect October 31, 1983. Either party has the right to terminate this agreement after a period of one year. Sixty days advance written notice will be required for any such termination.
