[1]Political activity as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

GRAY AND COMPANY

NEIL C. LIVINGSTONE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

March 29, 1984

Mr. Thanom Soongnarata
Information Counselor
Royal Thai Embassy
2300 Kalorama Road, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Mr. Thanom:

Please accept this letter as our letter of agreement by which Gray and Company Public Communications International, Inc. will produce for the Royal Thai Embassy two segments of Washington Spotlight.

The fee for Gray and Company Public Communications International, Inc. services for this one-time program will be $1,600. This will include the cost of putting the program up on satellite on April 6, as well as mailing cassette tapes to our subscribers. As Gray and Company has to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, a $100 fee to cover these costs has been added. The total cost is, therefore, $1,700. Any unpaid invoice for a period of 60 days will incur a carrying charge of two percent (2%) per month against the outstanding balance due.

Gray and Company cannot independently verify factual material supplied to it by the Royal Thai Embassy and therefore, the Royal Thai Embassy will indemnify and hold harmless Gray and Company Public Communications International based upon information, or other material prepared by Gray and Company on behalf of the Royal Thai Embassy.

This agreement will become effective on Thursday, March 29, 1984.
