Mr. Sakthip Krairiksh
Minister-Counsellor
Royal Thai Embassy
2300 Kalorama Road, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Mr. Sakthip:

Please accept this letter as our letter of agreement by which Gray and Company Public Communications International, Inc. will produce for the Royal Thai Embassy two segments of Washington Spotlight.

The fee for Gray and Company Public Communications International, Inc. services for this one-time program will be $1,600. This will include the cost of transmitting the program over satellite twice on April 6th. At 3:30 p.m. EST the program will be uplinked on the National Public Radio network satellite to more than 275 stations. At 7:10 p.m. EST the program will be transmitted via satellite to over 1,400 stations in the Mutual Broadcasting Network. These stations tape Washington Spotlight for future use in their programming. In addition, cassette tapes of the program are mailed to over 550 subscribing stations.

In the promotional letter and in both segments of the tape it is clearly stated Prime Minister Prem will be in Washington on April 12th and 13th. By putting the program on satellite on April 6th, and mailing the cassettes in advance, radio stations across the country are able to plan ahead so they can schedule the use of the program in a timely fashion, specifically while the Prime Minister is in Washington. Many stations will use the two segements immediately preceding and during this time.

As Gray and Company has to register under the Foreign Agent Registration Act, a $100 fee to cover these costs has been added. The total cost is, therefore, $1,700. Any unpaid invoice for a period of 60 days will incur a carrying charge of two percent (2%) per month against the outstanding balance due.

Gray and Company cannot independently verify factual material supplied to it by the Royal Thai Embassy and therefore, the Royal Thai Embassy will indemnify and hold harmless Gray and Company Public Communications International based upon information, or other material prepared by Gray and Company on behalf of the Royal Thai Embassy.

This agreement will become effective on Wednesday, April 4, 984.
