Dear Bill:

Please let this serve as our letter of agreement by which Gray and Company Public Communications International, Inc. ("Gray and Company") will provide Brother International with international trade counsel and government relations service for the month of June 1985.

The fee for Gray and Company services will be a retainer of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), plus the sum of hourly charges of officers and staff who participate on the account. Manpower charges are exclusive of out-of-pocket expenses to which a ten percent (10%) administrative handling will be added. Any unpaid invoice for a period of sixty (60) days will incur a carrying charge of two percent (2%) per month against the outstanding balance due.

Gray and Company cannot independently verify factual material supplied to it by Brother International or its agents and therefore Brother International agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Gray and Company for any claim, loss, damage, expense or other legal liability based upon information, representations, reports, news releases, or other material prepared by Gray and Company on behalf of Brother International or its agents.

The agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia and may be amended in whole or in part only by a writing signed by all parties.

Please signify your acceptance of the agreement by signing below.
