("NYSIA" or "you") to retain The Wexler Group, a unit of Hill and Knowlton, Inc. ("The Wexler Group" or "we") as consultants. Under this agreement, we will develop and implement a public affairs program to promote NYSIA, specifically in connection with the coming visit by the Minister of Economy of the Czech and Slovak Republic to the United States.

This Agreement will commence on April 1, 1992, and will remain in effect through May 31, 1992 or until terminated as specified herein. In consideration of our making our time available and other agreement made by us in this letter, NYSIA will pay our firm a total of $30,000 in two installments: $15,000 upon execution of this agreement and an additional $15,000 on May 1, 1992. These fees include the costs of our professional services as well as any expenses incurred by us, at our discretion, in fulfillment of this agreement.

Payment of fees will be due within 30 days of the date of the monthly statements. Any fees or expenses not paid within 30 days of the statement date shall be subject to a late charge of 1.5 percent per month.

The Wexler Group will comply on behalf of NYSIA and the Minister with the Foreign Agents Registration Act. It is understood that pursuant to this Act, The Wexler Group may be making reports of its activities to appropriate U.S. government regulatory agencies and that such reports will be available to the public.

It is agreed that either party may cancel this agreement upon 30 days' written notice.

It is understood that The Wexler Group may assign such professional personnel to work on matters for NYSIA as we shall deem reasonable and advisable and in the best interest of NYSIA.

It is understood that The Wexler Group will keep confidential all information received from NYSIA which you advise us is confidential, except insofar as such information need be made available to senior management of Hill & Knowlton, Inc. on a "need to know" basis in accordance with the conflicts resolution procedures described below. NYSIA agrees that The Wexler Group may disclose other information you provide us to the extent we deem it necessary to represent NYSIA.

NYSIA agrees to indemnify and hold harmless The Wexler Group from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) or liabilities ("damages") which The Wexler Group may incur (i) as a result of any materials, releases, reports or information supplied to The Wexler Group on behalf of NYSIA or prepared by The Wexler Group and approved by NYSIA prior to its dissemination; and (ii) except when attributable to The Wexler Group's failure to use due care, resulting from disputes between The Wexler Group and third parties related to and or within the scope of this agreement. This provision shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this agreement.

In the event that The Wexler Group's efforts on behalf of NYSIA and the Minister extend to influencing legislation within the meaning of the Federal Regulation of Lobbying Act, The Wexler Group will register with and report to the Congress under provisions of that Act or any successor legislation.

The Wexler Group, an autonomous unit of Hill & Knowlton, Inc., may represent other clients involved in various international issues. However, The Wexler Group does not anticipate any conflicts of interest between those clients and NYSIA. If any unforeseen conflicts do arise, The Wexler Group will notify NYSIA promptly and make every effort to resolve such conflicts as soon as possible and on mutually agreed upon terms.

This agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia for contracts to be performed entirely within the District of Columbia.

This agreement contains the entire understanding between the parties. It may be changed only by written agreement signed by both parties.
