Public Relations Worldwide
EDELMAN

September 10, 1998

To: Korean International Trade Association

This letter, when signed by you, will constitute our agreement to serve as public relations counsel for the Korean International Trade Association (KITA) for the period September 7, 1998 through November 6, 1998.

As public relations counsel, we will develop and implement activities designed to achieve the KITA's public relations objectives and counsel the KITA on public relations questions, opportunities and problems, and will use our best efforts to further its reputation and interest.

Specifically, we will run two items under this contract (September 10 – November 6, 1998):
1) Disseminate information regarding Korea's trade issues
2) Schedule media interviews for a high Korean government official during his visit.

The details are provided below.

SHIPPED OCT 2 2 1998

1. Disseminate Information

Objective: To ensure that Korea's message on its economic liberalization and reform and/or US-Korean trade issues is disseminated in September and October

Target Audience: Trade, economic, foreign affairs and business journalists, Washington opinion-makers and policy-makers

Activities:

1) Edelman will develop and distribute information on Korea's trade liberalization, banking reform, industrial restructuring, and/or US-Korea steel and auto issues
2) Edelman will disseminate, at least five times, information from KITA (when raw material is available) through broadcast-faxing a "message of the day" to the media regarding Korea's economic reform and/or US-Korean trade issues. Key messages will be re-emphasized each time.

2. One-on-one media interviews for a high Korean government official during his visit in September/October

Objective & Main Activity:
To develop and establish relationships and generate coverage with key U.S. trade, business and economic journalists, Edelman will arrange up to three one-on-one interviews for a high Korean government official while he is in Washington – with two prominent print journalists and one broadcast reporter. The topics will cover Korea's economic liberalization and reform and/or US-Korean trade issues. It is understood by both sides of the contract that the execution of this part of the project is contingent upon the availability of the government officials in Washington DC. If a proper official is unavailable during the contract period, Edelman remains responsible for executing this part of the project until December 31, 1998.

Details:
1) Edelman will work with KITA to identify elite U.S. journalists to target for this program.
2) Edelman will then use its media contacts to arrange these interviews.
3) Edelman will provide the high Korean government official with background briefing materials on each journalist and talking points for the interviews.
4) After the interview, Edelman will follow up with the reporters, providing additional information requested.
5) Edelman will present KITA with a proposal to maintain contact with these journalists, supplying them with necessary information, when appropriate.

You agree to pay Edelman, as compensation for our professional hourly services, a personnel fee of $30,000 including out-of-pocket expenses (phone, fax, photocopying) and all other operation-related expenses plus $5,000 to produce a low-cost press kit.

For the additional expenses that can not be covered with the above amount, Edelman will notify KITA in advance for approval.

All invoices for fees and disbursements are due and to be paid through wire transfer within thirty (30) days after the date of the invoice. Edelman will provide necessary information for wire transfer as soon as the signed contract is received.

You agree to indemnify and save us harmless from and against all liability, including all actions, claims, damages, costs and attorneys' fees, which we may incur (or to which we may be a party), arising out of actions taken or statements made by us at your direction or based upon information provided by you.

We agree to keep confidential all information and materials so designated by you and to limit access to such information and materials to those with a need to know.

It is agreed that any dispute arising out of this agreement or by actions of either party hereto in implementing this agreement which cannot be settled by the mutual consent of the parties shall be settled by arbitration according the rules of the American Arbitration Association.

During the period of this agreement and for one (1) year after its termination neither you nor we will, without the consent of the other, engage as an employee (either directly or indirectly) any person who is employed or has been employed within the last six months by the other.

Please sign both copies of this letter, retaining the original for your files and returning the copy to us.

Sincerely,

For: DANIEL J. EDELMAN, INC.
