Dear Ainsley,

It is Edelman's policy to document in contractual form the terms under which it accepts client assignments so there will be no misunderstandings at a later date. Recognizing, however, that final agreement on the contract can be delayed for various reasons, we ask you, as an authorized representative of Trinidad & Tobago, to sign this interim letter authorizing us to commence work on your behalf.

Services will begin September 7, 2005 and go through December 31, 2005. We will bill you for hours worked at our standard hourly rates, plus out-of-pocket costs which include a 10% service charge (other than with respect to travel and entertainment expenses reimbursable to Edelman employees), and a 6% administrative charge for internal expenses. Internal expenses consist of local phone, fax, copier, postage, e-mail, internet/extranet charges and database administration costs. In addition, we require that you have on deposit with us at all times prior to entering into a contract, no less than $10,000, which we will apply to our bills for outstanding fees and expenses in the event we fail to reach agreement on a final contract.

Please sign both copies of this letter, retain one original for your files and return the other to us in the self addressed envelope provided.

Yours truly,

EDELMAN
