Amendment to Registration Statment
Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

OMB No. 1105-0004

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney Genreral transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

ATTACHMENT 5

On or about September 7, 1991, Holland & Knight filed a Supplemental Statement for the six-month period ending August 7, 1991. We reported in that Supplemental Statement that our connection with Sucre y Sucre had ended. This is an error on our part and accordingly we withdraw that response. On January 17, 1990, we filed a Short Foreign Registration Statement for Hotel Suites Alvear. In the corresponding exhibits, we explained that we were representing Hotel Suites Alvear at the request of Sucre y Sucre, a Panamanian law firm. Exhibit B3 of that filing explained that Sucre y Sucre had referred Hotel Suites Alvear to the firm to represent it before the Office of Foreign Assets Control. When we reviewed our files in preparation of the most recent filing of our Supplemental Statement, we inadvertently mistook Sucre y Sucre for Hotel Suites Alvear. No registration for Sucre y Sucre was ever necessary. Further, we previously reported that we no longer represent Hotel Suites Alvear.

In the same Supplemental Statement, we also inadvertently failed to list Sociedad Aeronautica de Medellin and the Ministry of Tourism as foreign principals whom we continued to represent during the six-month reporting period. The following is a detailed description of our activities and services for these foreign principals during the six-month period ending August 7, 1991. Additionally, information of receipts of monies as sought under question 14(a) of the Supplemental Statement is also set forth below:

Jamaican Ministry of Tourism

Holland & Knight provides counsel to the Jamaican Ministry of Tourism on matters involving litigation, commercial agreements, Federal law, Florida law and international law and treaties. Such advice is generally oral, but sometimes is written in nature.

During the six month period, no monies were received from the Ministry.

Sociedad Aeronautica de Medellin

During the six-month reporting period ending August 7, 1991, George Mencio of our Miami office met with Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA") officials regarding Sociedad Aeronautica de Medellin's ("SAM") FAA Part 129 application. Mencio met with Max Rojas, Principal Operations Inspector of the Flight Standards Division in the FAA's Miami district office. He also met with Victor H. Tamariz, Aviation Inspector/Airworthiness, in the Miami district office.

The following represents the monies we have received from SAM as legal fees during this reporting period:

Date		Amount
04/26/91		$ 10,648.73
04/26/91		5,160.38
04/26/91		1,012.07
06/05/91		355.50
	TOTAL	$ 17,176.68
