SUBJECT: Request from the Embassy of Bahrain Under Section 108A of the Fulbright-Hays Act

ISSUE FOR DECISION

Whether to approve, under Section 108A of the Fulbright-Hays Act, the establishment of an Educational and Cultural Exchange Program to provide for visits to Bahrain by U.S. Government employees.

2004 MAY 26 AM 11:03
CRM/ISS/REGISTRATION UNIT

ESSENTIAL FACTORS

Federal employees, including congressional staff, cannot accept payment for travel from foreign governments unless authorized to do so by Congress. Section 108A of Fulbright-Hays authorizes the acceptance of such payments, through grants and other forms of assistance, to facilitate participation in cultural exchange programs which are: 1) visits and interchanges between the United States and other countries of leaders, experts in fields of specialized knowledge or skill, and other influential or distinguished persons; 2) conducted to assist in increasing mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries, and 3) specifically approved by the Secretary of State. Pursuant to Delegation of Authority No. 234 of October 1, 1999, this approval authority now rests with you.

Regulations implementing section 108A of Fulbright-Hays are set forth in 22 C.F.R. Part 64 (formerly Part 516). They contain criteria for the approval of a cultural exchange program, which criteria consist of a demonstration by the foreign government of 1) and 2), above, as well as an assertion that a grant under the program will not provide assistance with respect to any expenses incurred by or for any member of the family or household of the Federal employee. The regulations also specify the information, which the foreign government shall provide in its application, including the number of annual U.S. citizen participants expected.

Under the regulations, and as implemented by the Department of State, section 108A authority is exercised to approve a generic cultural exchange program proposed by a foreign government, the specific annual activities of which, and number and identity of participants in which, will vary from year to year. If at any time it appears that the purpose of an approved program has been changed so that it no longer meets the regulatory criteria, or that the program is being misused, you would have the authority to terminate your approval, or to suspend your approval pending the supplying of additional information.

By letter dated March 24, 2004 (copy attached at Tab 2), Ambassador Khalifa Ali Al-Khalifa seeks approval of an Educational and Cultural Exchange Program to be organized and sponsored by the Government of Bahrain.

The program will include visits by U.S. Congressional Staff members to Bahrain from April 12-16, 2004. In anticipation of a completed Free Trade Agreement, the purpose of the visit is to provide approximately 15 select House Congressional staff members with an opportunity to meet and confer with citizens and leaders of Bahrain and experience life and business in Bahrain first hand.

It is clear from the materials submitted by the Embassy of Bahrain that the proposed program meets the requirements under section 108A of Fulbright-Hays.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the letter at Tab 1 approving the establishment of the Government of Bahrain Educational and Cultural Exchange Program.

[1] Because the firm uses a cash accounting system, we are reporting costs by the date in which the expense was booked in the firm's accounting system, not by the date payment was billed or disbursed. Prior to this filing, we have reported monies disbursed on the basis of the date billed. While such methodology has been adequate for FARA reporting, in this review we have found that the differences between our cash accounting system and the reporting of billed amounts has led to discrepancies in reporting of certain costs. We have reviewed the records relating to all foreign principals of the registrant, and provide the revised figures herein.

[2] Administrative cost entries represent ordinary costs and expenses, such as long distance telephone calls, transportation, telecopy, messenger service, postage, duplicating and travel (where such travel involves firm personnel traveling on non-FARA-reportable business), incurred in the legal representation of client. No entry represents a disbursement to the foreign principal. A number of the administrative cost entries do not represent payments by the firm to third parties on behalf of clients, but simply costs incurred by the firm and reimbursable only to the firm.

[3] Mr. Galen provided advice and counseling to the foreign principal relating to business and commercial interests in the Middle East.

[4] These expenses relate to a congressional staff delegation trip to Bahrain from 2/21/05 to 2/25/05. The trip was paid by the Kingdom of Bahrain. One Holland & Knight employee accompanied the delegation and incurred the additional expenses listed above in the amount of $436.49. See attached for details relating to this travel.
