As is often the case with our major clients, we have agreed to represent Air Jamaica on an hourly basis. This means that we provide services as efficiently as possible, selecting those attorneys or paralegals who are best suited to handle a particular matter, and billing the client for that person's work based upon their normal hourly rate. In addition, we will advance reasonable costs for travel and lodging. Typically, we bill our hourly clients on a monthly basis. We have sent our first monthly statement to Air Jamaica and will presumably be sending regular statements in the future.

4. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

We were primarily engaged by Air Jamaica to represent the company in regard to the seizure of an Air Jamaican aircraft at Miami International Airport by the U.S. Customs Service. We have been representing Air Jamaica before the Miami Customshouse including meetings with the District Director and his staff, filings with Customs and consultations with the client. While we believe that most, if not all our work for Air Jamaica, falls within the context of informal or formal adjudicatory proceedings, we are including this work in our report in an abundance of caution.
