See response to question 4. In addition, in preparation for the private visit of President Abdou Diouf to the United States in May, a Holland & Knight attorney accompanied Ambassador Seck to meetings with Clinton administration officials responsible for the U.S.-Senegal bilateral relationship and with members of Congress involved the development of U.S. policy toward Africa. The purpose of the meetings was to provide information about President Diouf's upcoming visit. During these meetings questions were raised concerning the incarceration of certain political figures in Senegal. The Ambassador responded by describing the circumstances of their arrests, the nature of the charges brought against them, and the judicial proceedings which were being undertaken to reach a judgment of their guilt or innocence. The Ambassador also discussed the impact of the devaluation of the CFA upon the economy of Senegal.

Monsieur Babacar Néné M'baye
Minister
Office of the Presidency of the Republic of Senegal
Dakar, Senegal

Re: Engagement as Counsel

Dear Minister M'Baye:

We are grateful that you have retained Holland & Knight to provide you with advice and counsel regarding the enhancement of the bilateral relationship between the Government of Senegal and the Government of the United States. Our engagement will be effective as of September 1, 1993 and will terminate on December 31, 1994 unless renewed prior to that date.

The purpose of this letter is to confirm our engagement as counsel at a retainer fee of Six Thousand Dollars (US$6,000.00) per month due and payable on the first day of each month during the course of our engagement. As substantial work has already been performed under this engagement in accordance with a verbal agreement reached in September, 1993 with the President of the Republic, the Government of the Republic of Senegal recognizes an accrued obligation of Forty Two Thousand Dollars (US$42,000.00) in fees as of March 31, 1994. Payment of this obligation will be made on or before April 30, 1994 and subsequent fees will be paid monthly thereafter through the termination date of this contract.

If the terms described above are satisfactory to you, please so indicate by signing the enclosed copy of this letter and returning the signed copy.

We are grateful for the opportunity to work with you in connection with these matters and we look forward to a mutually satisfactory relationship.

Sincerely,

HOLLAND & KNIGHT
