Check Appropriate Boxes:

1. [ ] The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach two copies of the contract to this exhibit.

2. [ ] There is no formal written contract between the registrant and foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach two copies of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.

3. [X] The agreement or understanding between the registrant and foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and the expenses, if any, to be received.

Predecessor of RGIT was the Washington office of the German American Chamber of Commerce, Inc., established in 1976. Operations developed without specific written instructions and are continued this way under the joint supervision of the two new principals. The function of RGIT is to contribute to the exchange of information between the USA and the Federal Republic of Germany on behalf of German business in reflecting views of BDI and DIHT. Addressees are the public and the U.S. government in particular.

4. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

RGIT reports - generally in writing - to its principals on U.S. rules and legislation and major economic developments of relevance to U.S.-German trade and investment. RGIT also informs the U.S. public and government about German business and views of German business on economic, legislative and administrative action of mutual concern.
