1. Name of Registrant	2. Registration No.
Representative of German Industry and Trade (RGIT)	4274

3. Name of Foreign Principal

Association of German Chambers of Commerce and Industry (Deutscher Industrie- und Handelskammertag, DIHK e.V.)

Check Appropriate Box:

4. ☐ The agreement between the registrant and the above-named foreign principal is a formal written contract. If this box is checked, attach a copy of the contract to this exhibit.

5. ☐ There is no formal written contract between the registrant and the foreign principal. The agreement with the above-named foreign principal has resulted from an exchange of correspondence. If this box is checked, attach a copy of all pertinent correspondence, including a copy of any initial proposal which has been adopted by reference in such correspondence.

6. ☒ The agreement or understanding between the registrant and the foreign principal is the result of neither a formal written contract nor an exchange of correspondence between the parties. If this box is checked, give a complete description below of the terms and conditions of the oral agreement or understanding, its duration, the fees and expenses, if any, to be received.

7. Describe fully the nature and method of performance of the above indicated agreement or understanding.

Predecessor of RGIT was the Washington office of the German American Chamber of Commerce, Inc., established in 1976. Operations developed without specific written instructions and are continued this way under the joint supervision of the two principals. The function of RGIT is to contribute to the exchange of information between the USA and the Federal Republic of Germany on behalf of German business in reflecting views of BDI and DIHK. Addressees are the public and the US government in particular. The duration of this understanding is not limited in time. Operating expenses and salaries are covered by the principals.

RGIT reports - generally in writing - to its principals on US rules and legislation and major economic developments of relevance to US-German trade and investment. RGIT also informs the US public and government about German business and views of German business on economic, legislative and administrative action of mutual concern.

8. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

Activities include meetings with US business, participation in conferences, oral testimony and written submissions to the US government, distribution of documents and press releases, appointments for visitors from Germany and mirror activities in the Federal Republic of Germany.

9. Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act and in the footnote below? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose.

The primary objective of the office is to inform US contacts, primarily US industry, about activities and views of German business. The US government occasionally is approached on issues concerning international trade or investment, e.g. non-tariff barriers, avoidance of double taxation, import restrictions, policies on foreign investment, export promotion or controls and the like. While the individual issues change, the policy is to contribute to maintaining an open international trade and investment climate. This is done through personal conversation with or submission of written materials to members or committees of Congress, federal regulatory agencies, or executive branch officials.

EXECUTION

In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746, the undersigned swears or affirms under penalty of perjury that he/she has read the information set forth in this Exhibit B to the registration statement and that he/she is familiar with the contents thereof and that such contents are in their entirety true and accurate to the best of his/her knowledge and belief.
