Dear Andrew

GLASGOW 1999 RECEPTIONS:
NEW YORK 7th OCTOBER
LOS ANGELES 15th or 16th OCTOBER

Further to my fax and our conversation last week, I would be delighted if DCI would undertake to co-ordinate press receptions on Glasgow 1999 UK City of Architecture & Design in New York on Wednesday 7th October and Los Angeles on Thursday 15th or Friday 16th October at the agreed rate of $4,500 per reception.

Our inclusive budget for each reception is $4,500 (excluding DCI's fee).

We are hoping to use the Mondrian for the LA venue since an exhibition of Philippe Starck's work will be one of the highlights of next year's programme and are awaiting advice on availability. Nancy McLardie will be the Greater Glasgow & Clyde Valley Tourist Board representative at this reception and relevant point-of-contact.

The Sky Club has been recommended to us as a possible New York venue with the sufficient 'wow' factor to ensure a good turnout of 20-25 key travel trade, consumer and architecture & design media for a light lunch & presentation on Glasgow 1999. I will be attending the New York reception.

I would be grateful if you could look into availability of The Sky Club and perhaps one or two other suitable venues, which you feel in your experience to be worthy options.

We are in the process of producing stylish invitations and will forward these to you in due course once venues have been confirmed. BTA in New York are assisting with the drawing up of a suitable invitation list and any suggestions you wish to add to this would be gratefully accepted.

I look forward to working with DCI on these projects.

Best regards.
