Exhibit A
To Registration Statement
Under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

OMB No. 1105-0003

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney Genreral transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .49 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Re: Professional Services Agreement

2001 OCT 17 PM 4:01

Greetings. The purpose of this retainer letter is to describe the terms of our legal representation.

1. Description of Services. We will advise you on the forthcoming negotiations of a tax information exchange agreement (TIEA) between your government and the United States. We will prepare a brief discussing the U.S. TIEA model and/or negotiating text, its existing TIEAs, the relevant U.S. law, and related aspects on which you request our assistance.

At your request, we will participate in the negotiations, which we understand will start on September 20-21 in Washington.

2. Professional Fees. Our fees for these professional services will be charged as follows: Fees of $330.00 on an hourly basis for all professional services rendered by the undersigned, who is the partner supervising the matter; and normal hourly rates for other members of the firm.

3. Reimbursable Expenses. Reimbursement will be required for our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our services, including the expense of any long distance telephone calls, filing fees, special postage, photocopies, computer research, transportation, transcripts or other expenses incurred on your behalf, the sending and receiving of facsimiles.

4. Initial Retainer. The firm normally requires an advance of the initial estimated fees. We request an initial advance of $6,000.00. If you would like us to continuing working on the case, once the initial advance is exhausted, we will discuss any necessity for additional advances. In the event you want to pay by wire transfer, our Account is with the Bank of America,

Washington, D.C., No. 2086686870, Routing No. 005-001204.

5. Monthly Statements. All fees for professional services and reimbursable expense will be billed monthly and are payable upon receipt of the statement.

6. Managing Attorney. The undersigned attorney shall be the managing attorney responsible for supervising the professional services to be rendered.

If the foregoing meets with your approval, please sign the fax copy of this Agreement and return it to me as soon as possible. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact me.

Sincerely,

BERLINER, CORCORAN & ROWE
