AGREEMENT

This agreement for public relations services (the "Agreement") is made and entered into this 1st day of February 2007, by and between the government of the Republic of Turkey, a sovereign State, (the "Government") and The Glover Park Group, a corporation formed under the laws of the District of Columbia, with an office in Washington, DC (the "Group").

The Government and the Group hereby agree to the:

1. Term. This Agreement shall last six months, commencing on February 1, 2007 and terminating on July 31, 2007. It may be renewed for additional and successive periods upon the explicit written agreement of both parties. This Agreement may, during its term, be terminated with or without cause at any time by either party after sixty (60) days written notice to the other party.

2. Services. The Group shall provide public relations services, as required, for the Government. The full nature and extent of those services shall be jointly determined by the Government and the Group. The Group shall not pursue a public relations strategy or agenda without the express consent of the Government.

The website of the Turkish Embassy (www.turkishembassy.org) is an integral part of the Government's outreach efforts in the U.S. The Group will be responsible for making sure that the content of the website is up to date, relevant and effective as far as the Government's public relations efforts are concerned. The Group will also be responsible for the day-to-day management of the website.

3. Fees. The Government agrees to pay the Group a retainer fee in the sum of $300,000 in United States dollars for the services described herein. This retainer fee shall be payable in the following installments:

- An installment of U.S. $150,000 due and payable no later than April 1, 2007.
- An installment of U.S. $75,000 due and payable no later than May 1, 2007.
- An installment of U.S. $75,000 due and payable no later than June 15, 2007.

All retainer fee installments shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the following account, or to such accounts as later designated by the Group in writing:

4. Refund for Early Termination: In the event that this Agreement is terminated prior to the end of its term, any retainer fees paid to the Group by the Government that exceed the pro-rata share of fees apportioned on a daily basis, up to and including the date sixty (60) days after notice of termination has been provide as described herein, shall be refunded by the Group to the Government.

5. Report. The Group will provide the Government with a written monthly status report concerning the services provided in the previous month and to be provided in the following month, as described herein.

6. Privileged Information. Subject to the requirements of U.S. law (including Title 22, Chapter 11 of the United States Code pertaining to the Foreign Agents Registration Act), the Group, understanding the sensitive nature of the services to be provided under this Agreement, will make every effort to protect and keep secret all privileged communications and other confidential information developed by the Group or provided to the Group by the Government during the course of the Group's provision of services described herein. The Group shall neither make nor keep more copies than necessary of materials relating to its services for the Government. The Group also agrees to keep files relating to its services for the Government under lock and key. Subject to the requirements of U.S. law, as noted above, at the Government's request, the Group shall destroy, whether by cross shredding and/or burning certain documents identified by the Government in the possession of the Group.

7. Subcontractors. The Group may employ at its discretion subcontractors to assist in providing the services described herein.

8. Legal Compliance. The Group and any subcontractor of the Group shall separately and individually comply with all applicable U.S. laws and regulations. In particular, it shall comply with Title 22, Chapter 11 of the United States Code pertaining to the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

9. Conflicts. The Government understands that the Group provides services to many commercial entities that are engaged in international business and trade activities.
