Ambassador
Embassy of The Republic of Hungary

Washington, DC 20008

Re: Engagement of Greenberg Traurig, LLP

Dear Ambassador Szabó:

Thank you for agreeing to engage Greenberg Traurig, LLP ("GT" or "we") as your government relations counsel. We look forward to working with your team to accomplish the outreach goals we have discussed.

GT agrees to represent the Embassy of Hungary in Washington, D.C. (the "Embassy" or "You") before Members of Congress and congressional personnel, and to assist with outreach to selected civilian thought leaders. Our fees for this engagement will be a total of $100,000 ($16,666.66 per month) for a fixed period of six months, beginning on the date you sign this letter agreement and return it to GT. Payment is due in two installments of $50,000 each, the first payable in July 2019 and the second at the conclusion of the engagement. We will include with each invoice a written status report of our work. You agree to pay our invoice within ten business days of your issuance of a certificate of completion evidencing your satisfaction with the work reported. If upon review, the Embassy believes that GT has not performed satisfactorily, we ask that you provide prompt written notice, specifying deficiencies and identifying corrective action. GT will make best efforts to address the Embassy's concerns.

This fee covers our government relations services to the Embassy. In addition, the engagement may require certain expenses, including travel and special event costs. We will ask for your advance approval of any expense of $500 or more. Whenever possible, any such costs will be paid directly by the Embassy or by Embassy personnel.

This letter also confirms that the Embassy authorizes GT to hire third parties, as GT deems necessary, including, but not limited to Tri Consultants, LLC. GT will facilitate payment to such third parties from the amounts actually provided to GT by the Embassy, and after GT's fees and expenses are current.

The Embassy may request (in writing), and GT may perform, additional services outside the scope of this agreement. In each case, GT will provide an estimate of costs for providing such services, and if we agree, we will do so in a separate written acknowledgement.

We will maintain the confidentiality of any information you provide during the engagement, and will not disclose it unless directed to do so by you, or as may be required authorities under applicable law. In such an unlikely case, we will do our utmost to provide you notice before any such mandatory disclosure. GT likely will use cloud storage to maintain information you share during the engagement. GT has ISO 27001:2013 data security certification, and when we use third-party cloud services, we engage with vendors that provide the same level of data security, or higher. If cloud storage of data is of concern to you, please let us know.

GT will be solely responsible for its compliance with all federal, state, and other applicable laws and regulations, including but not limited to the Foreign Agents Registration Act. GT is responsible to obtain any necessary licenses, permits, or approvals, and to comply with all applicable filing and documentation requirements (including the filing of this engagement letter, which will be publicly available).

Before GT agrees to this representation, it is appropriate to spell out the expectations or standards that will govern conflicts of interest that arise in the course of this Engagement. GT has more than 2,000 legal professionals throughout 39 offices, in the United States and internationally, representing thousands of clients throughout the world, so it is foreseeable that representation of other GT clients may be or become adverse to Hungary's interests from time to time. GT has conducted a conflict check for the purposes of this representation, and found no current conflict.

With respect to GT's government relations practice, Hungary is aware that the Firm represents the interests of other persons and entities before various legislative and executive bodies, and administrative agencies at the local, state, and federal level. In addition, the Firm represents a broad spectrum of clients in many different industries in connection with a wide variety of matters. In addition, because of GT's size, and as Hungary might expect, GT has lawyers and non-lawyer lobbyists with many different views and philosophies. Some of the Firm's lawyers and non-lawyer lobbyists are from time to time involved with the political process for various candidates and causes, sometimes interests which in some cases, might be adverse to the interests Hungary seeks to promote through its engagement of GT. We do not believe that our representation of these other clients with points of view that differ from Hungary's will affect the GT's ability to provide competent and diligent representation to any of our GT's clients. Notwithstanding the above, GT will not represent other parties in a federal agency contracting or lobbying matter substantially related to the subject matter of this engagement, and directly adverse to Hungary. For example, we would not and could not concurrently advocate contrary positions for two clients before the same body or agency on the same issue. However, from time to time it is possible that we may take positions on behalf of other clients that may indirectly impact Hungary's interests in matters in which we do not represent Hungary. Thus, as a condition of GT undertaking this engagement, Hungary must agree to waive all legal business, and political conflicts which exist or may arise as a result of the Firm's representation of Hungary and any other person or entity.

The Embassy may terminate this engagement before the six-month period for any reason by providing GT thirty (30) days' written notice. GT may terminate the engagement for nonpayment of fees. Upon termination of this engagement by either party, GT will be entitled to retain all sums previously paid, and to receive payment of outstanding unpaid invoices for which a certificate of completion has been issued, and payment for services pro-rated through the effective date of termination for which a certificate of completion has been issued.

All rights and obligations arising under or related to this agreement are and will be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia, irrespective of conflicts of law principles that might otherwise apply. If the Embassy, for any reason, is ever unhappy with any aspect of our relationship, please let me know immediately. In the highly unlikely event we can't resolve differences, and given such disputes are resolved more expeditiously (and with less expense) by binding arbitration than by court action, GT and the Embassy agree that any dispute arising under or relating to this agreement shall be resolved by confidential, binding arbitration in Washington, D.C., in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment on the award rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

We have not given you any assurance or guarantee concerning the outcome or success of this engagement. Working with you and at your direction, GT will make best efforts to provide excellent service, and to assist the Embassy in achieving its goals.

Very truly yours,

GREENBERG TRAURIG, LLP
