Re: Greenberg Traurig Government Affairs Representation

Dear Mr. Abe:

Thank you for allowing Greenberg Traurig ("GT") to have the opportunity to represent Consulate of Japan ("Consulate") and provide government affairs representation. It is our firm's policy to confirm in writing the scope and terms of our engagement. Our clients have both encouraged this practice, and have found it to be useful. Please review this letter (the "Agreement") carefully and call me as soon as possible if you have any questions.

For this engagement, GT will provide the Consulate of Japan with government affairs representation throughout New York State, including New York City. GT's government affairs representation will also include working with other stakeholders and coalitions to implement an agreed upon strategy to accomplish Consulate's legislative agenda. GT will track other legislative and regulatory actions of interest to Consulate, and is available to advise Consulate on lobby law compliance and filings.

GT's fees for this representation will be $8,000 per month, effective October 16, 2019 through March 31, 2020. Either party may cancel the Agreement upon 30 days' notice. Please note that this fee will only cover the scope of work outlined above, and specifically excludes any and all additional work including but not limited to, contract negotiations, bid or RFP protests or government investigations. GT will submit a report at the time the monthly invoice is delivered to the Consulate that will include, but is not limited to, a summary of activities conducted on the Consulate's behalf during the preceding month.

The majority of the work will be completed by me. From time to time, I may ask other GT attorneys and lobbyists to assist in this matter.

Based on our initial computerized review of our files, I am not aware of any existing matter involving a conflict of interest between you and other clients of the firm. However, due to the diverse and complex nature of our firm's practice, unforeseen conflicts may arise. In such event, we will notify you of the conflict and our representation may thereafter be terminated by you or the firm unless you and the other source of the conflict agree to provide appropriate waivers.

As you know, GT is a large law firm with offices in a number of cities across the U.S. Existing or new clients may in the future seek our services in connection with matters which are not substantially related to our work for you. In some instances, the interests of those clients may be adverse to yours. It must be clearly understood that our firm cannot undertake to represent you without assurance that you will not seek, on the basis of this representation, to disqualify us from representing other clients in any matter that is not substantially related to our work for you. We recognize that your prospective consent to conflicting representation contained in the preceding sentence shall not apply in any instance where as the result of our representation of you we have obtained sensitive proprietary or otherwise confidential information that, if known to any other client of ours, could be used in another such matter by that client to your material disadvantage.

As discussed, GT will be required to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA) and submit semi-annual filings and other documents, including this Agreement, to the U.S. Department of Justice. These filings and disclosures are publicly available.

All of the rights and obligations of either of us arising under or related to this Agreement are and will be governed by the laws of the State of New York irrespective of conflicts of law principles that might otherwise apply. If Consulate, for any reason, is ever unhappy with any aspect of our relationship, please let me know immediately. In the highly unlikely event that we are unable to resolve differences, and given such disputes are resolved more expeditiously (and with less expense) by binding arbitration than by court action, GT and Consulate agree that any dispute arising under or relating to this agreement shall be resolved by confidential, binding arbitration in New York, in accordance with the commercial arbitration rules then in effect of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment on the award rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

The above provisions outline in reasonable detail our agreement as to this representation. If you find these arrangements satisfactory, please sign this letter and return it to us. We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to represent the Consulate in this matter and we look forward to a pleasant and successful relationship.

Very truly yours,

GREENBERG TRAURIG, LLP
