This dad is a hero. Afghanistan names school after illiterate dad who walked daughters 12 kilometres to school. Mia Khan, who suffers from heart disease, went viral for taking his daughters to the only girls' school in the area every day.

If the process of resolving the current issue in the Middle East region is in accordance to a path of reason and wisdom, we are certainly ready to cooperate. However, we can not be involved in any proxy wars.

Happy new year to our brave and selfless #peshmerga. Every generation of those who face death has risen up to defend #Kurdistan, despite the odds. The peshmerga make us proud to be Kurdish, inspire us to serve our people and our land.

We celebrated the welcoming of the new year at Sector 6 with brave #Peshmerga. Just like we spent the tough days together, we spend the good times together as well. I want to wish the families of martyrs, all Peshmergas, & everyone else in #Kurdistan & the world a very happy 2020

As per international conventions, protection of #diplomaticmissions and its personnel are responsibility of the host state. What happened in #Baghdad should be looked into seriously and prevent its repetition against any other mission in future.
