Transmit letter from the Philippine Ambassador to Members and staff of Congress regarding the reauthorization of the US Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) Program. We have been engaged by our US commercial client (Luen Thai) to engage in this activity and we do not expect any payment from the Philippine government nor are we receiving any direction or control from them. We are engaging in these activities solely on behalf of our Luen Thai, however, because the letter was signed by the Philippine ambassador and extension of the GSP program would benefit the Philippine Government, we are registering under FARA.
