U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, DC 20530

Amendment to Registration Statement Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. File this amendment form for any changes to a registration. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic amendment to registration statement and uploading any supporting documents at http://www.fara.gov.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the Registration Unit's webpage: http://www.fara.gov. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: http://www.fara.gov.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Counterespionage Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

INDEPENDENT DIPLOMAT
THE DIPLOMATIC ADVISORY GROUP

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PERMANENT OBSERVER MISSION OF THE STATE OF PALESTINE TO THE UNITED NATIONS AND INDEPENDENT DIPLOMAT

1. Independent Diplomat ("ID") will assist the Permanent Observer Mission of the State of Palestine to the United Nations ("the Mission") with its diplomatic outreach and strategy throughout the current crisis in the Gaza Strip ("Gaza crisis") for an initial period not exceeding three months beginning on 1 August 2014.

2. This work will comprise three principal elements:

   (a) support to the Mission in gathering information and views of Member States;

   (b) advice on strategies and tactics for handling the work in New York; and

   (c) assistance with diplomatic tools including, but not limited to preparation for meetings, letters, briefings.

3. Upon the signing of this contract, the Mission and ID shall notify one another of the individual(s) to whom each shall report.

4. ID will work in confidence with the Mission and will not advise or otherwise act for any other party involved in the Gaza crisis. The Mission shall provide ID with information necessary to enable ID to perform its work.

5. The Mission understands and accepts that the information and advice provided to it by ID should be treated in strictest confidence. ID shall not disclose prior, during or subsequent to this Agreement, any confidential information of the Mission, except as required in connection with ID's performance of this Agreement or as required by law.

6. ID will not advise or work for clients who promote or advocate unlawful violence or who otherwise engage in unethical behaviour. ID reserves the right to withdraw from this project on these grounds at any time.

Notes on Independent Diplomat's Services

1. All of ID's clients must meet ID's ethical criteria: a commitment to democratic, accountable, transparent and corruption-free government; the protection of human rights; and respect for international law. Independent Diplomat's diplomatic advice always reflects respect for international law, including international human rights law.

2. ID's purpose is to assist in the prevention and resolution of conflict. It does not seek to produce specific political outcomes but rather to assist its clients in their diplomatic performance, thereby promoting the peaceful achievement of their legitimate goals and aspirations.

3. ID does not act as an advocate for individuals or organisations or their programmes or for any political or ideological point of view, and is a neutral independent facilitator of diplomatic processes.
