OMB No. 1124-0004; Expires July 31, 2023

U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, DC 20530

Exhibit B to Registration Statement Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at https://www.fara.gov.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: https://www.fara.gov. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: https://www.fara.gov .

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .32 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

THIS AGREEMENT dated 29 June 2021

BETWEEN:

Independent Diplomat, Inc. of 246 5TH Avenue, New York, NY 10001 ("ID")

The Coordination of the Movements of the Azawad ("CMA" or the "Client").

WHEREAS:

(a) ID is an independent non-profit organization established in order to resolve or prevent conflict by offering advice and assistance in diplomacy to governments and non-state actors who meet ID's ethical criteria, which are commitment to democratic principles, protection of human rights, and respect for international law including non-resort to the use of unlawful violence.

(b) In reliance upon that skill, knowledge and experience, the Client wishes to engage ID to provide services to it and ID has agreed to accept the engagement on the terms set out below.

IT IS HEREBY AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Client has offered and ID has accepted engagement, on the terms set out in this Agreement, to provide diplomatic advisory services to the Client as set out in Annex 1 attached ("the Services").

2. ID shall provide the Services to the Client from 1 April 2021 ("the Commencement Date") for a period of 12 (twelve) months, terminating on 31 March 2022 ("the Term") unless terminated prior thereto pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. After the Term is complete, ID and the Client may agree to an extension of this Agreement, beginning 1 April 2022, and renewable by mutual agreement on an annual basis thereafter.

3. The Client and ID agree as part of this Agreement a fee shall be payable to ID from the Client. This will be €5,000.00 a month as a contribution to the costs of ID undertaking the advisory role for the Client. This will be in addition to costs (e.g. travel, accommodation costs) related to a mutually agreed number of trips by ID to Bamako, Mali.

4. During the Term, ID may accept and perform engagements for other clients, which do not impinge upon its ability to provide the Services.

5. ID warrants and represents to the Client that it is an independent contractor and as such bears sole responsibility for the payment of any form of tax levied by the government of the United States of America, which may be found due from it in relation to any payments or arrangements made under this Agreement.

6. The Client shall notify ID of the individual(s) within the Client to whom ID shall report and/or be the contact(s) for ID with the Client. The identities of such persons may vary during the course of the Term.

7. ID shall not nor shall any of its employees, agents or sub-contractors disclose or use or cause to be disclosed or used at any time during or subsequent to this Agreement, any secret or confidential information of the Client or any other information relating to the financial or other affairs of the Client, except as required by the Client in connection with ID's performance of the Agreement or as required by law. Subject, however, to ID's right to publicise its work including the existence of this Agreement, which ID may only do without revealing any confidential information.

8. The Client understands and accepts that the information provided to it by ID, as appropriate, may need to be treated in the strictest confidence. The Client shall not nor shall any of its agents disclose or use or cause to be disclosed or used at any time during or subsequent to this Agreement, any confidential information provided by ID without the written prior consent of ID.

9. ID shall not be liable for any loss, damages, expenses of whatsoever nature or kind suffered by the Client, its servants, agents, employees or contractors arising out of ID's performance of this Agreement.

10. Unless otherwise decided by ID in writing, the Client shall be solely responsible for the costs, expenses and fees of any third party contractors that the Client requests ID to employ to provide services to the Client which do not fall within the Services set out in Annex I.

11. The Client may terminate this Agreement by notice in writing to ID if:

    a. ID shall have been in breach of any term of this Agreement which, in the case of a breach capable of remedy, shall not have been remedied by ID within 7 days of receipt by ID of a written notice from the Client specifying the breach and requiring its remedy;

    b. ID shall have refused or failed within a reasonable time to provide any one or more of the Services after being instructed in writing by the Client to do so; or

    c. ID shall have conducted itself in any manner which, in the opinion of the Client has brought or is likely to bring either the Client into disrepute or has or is likely to impair ID's ability to provide any of the Services to the Client or to do so in any manner or at any time which the Client shall reasonably have required of it.

12. ID may terminate this Agreement by 7 days' notice in writing to the Client if:

a. the Client or those for whom it is responsible seeks by any means whatsoever to compromise or undermine the status of ID as a politically neutral independent diplomatic facilitator;

b. the Client breaches the terms of this Agreement; or

c. the Client violates ID's ethical criteria set out in preambular paragraph (a) above namely: commitment to democratic principles, protection of human rights, and respect for international law including non-resort to the use of unlawful violence.

13. Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause by 30 days written notice in writing to the other party.

14. This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties. It may only be changed by written agreement.

15. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this contract, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be settled amicably. If such settlement is not possible, the dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration before a sole arbitrator in accord with the Rules of the ICC International Court of Arbitration. The seat, or legal place, of arbitration shall be New York, New York, USA, and the language of the proceedings shall be English. The contract shall be governed by New York law, excluding its conflicts of laws rules.

16. Any notice to be given under this Agreement shall be in writing and will be deemed to be sufficiently served by one party on the other if it is either delivered personally or is sent by facsimile or is sent by email and addressed to the party to whom it is to be given.

IN WITNESS whereof this Agreement has been executed on the day first before written by the undersigned persons who are duly authorised by the respective party.

Annex I: SERVICES

The Services ID provides to the Client will support the CMA to improve its political strategy and diplomatic engagement with the international community with a particular focus in ensuring the full implementation of the Agreement for Peace and Reconciliation in Mali [Accord pour la paix et la reconciliation au Mali issu du processus d'Alger] signed in Algiers in 2015. This work aims to avoid a return to full scale hostilities among the signatory parties, to support the direct talks on the implementation of the Peace Agreement (Comité de Suivi de l'Accord) among the parties, and provide the Client the platform it seeks to promote the legitimate demands of the Azawad, including by ensuring a revised constitution that reflects the distinct needs of the Azawad and commitments in the Peace Agreement, a reconstituted security forces that include adequate representation of the Azawad and that the development needs of the Azawad are fully recognised, resourced and executed.

To achieve those aims the Services will include:

(i) Political strategy. ID will provide advice and strategy on how to seek action from the international community to secure CMA demands in the implementation of the Mali Peace Agreement – particularly within the transitional government period. The strategy will look at how to advance key issues such as Security Sector Reform (SSR), wider political and institutional reforms including those needed for the full implementation of decentralisation, as well as the establishment/return of basic services to the North of Mali. This will be an ongoing effort, with advice provided on a monthly basis, usually focused around the Comité de Suivi de l'Accord (CSA) meetings.

(ii) Diplomatic information-gathering and analysis. ID will provide analysis and background on the views of diplomatic policy-makers including at the UN Security Council, European Union, Human Rights Council, and key capitals. ID has a presence in New York, Washington, Geneva, Brussels and London and strong connections with the wider diplomatic community. This reporting will be linked to key events/developments as they unfold (eg. transition, MINUSMA mandate renewal) as well as feeding into monthly advice. If resources allow, ID will also provide advice on international law and legal mechanisms, including around constitutional processes and the respect of international treaties (e.g. the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child) on the involvement of children in armed conflict and the implementation of the CMA's Action Plan, as well as how to use international legal mechanisms to progress aims around accountability and justice processes.

(iii) Diplomatic visits. ID will support the Client's diplomatic visits to international capitals by setting up meetings, providing talking points and background on various CMA interlocutors. ID will support up to two such visits during the year, travel conditions permitting, and pursue additional opportunities for virtual/digital visits and advocacy, as well as the Client's regular engagement with the international community in Bamako.
