Re: Letter of Engagement

Dear Deputy Minister Dean,

I very much enjoyed our discussions in Montreal with you, Minister MacLellan and Daryl Eisan regarding our representation of Nova Scotia. We appreciate the confidence that you have shown in Nelson Mullins and we look forward to the opportunity to represent you in this matter. This letter of engagement summarizes the work discussed in those conversations.

Scope of Services. Nelson Mullins will provide federal government relations services relating to ferry service between Yarmouth, Nova Scotia and Bar Harbor, Maine. This scope of services does not include legal services.

Terms of Agreement. The period of performance under this agreement would commence on June 1, 2019, for a period of three (3) months. We would be engaged on a monthly retainer basis of $10,000 US per month. Nova Scotia would receive an electronic invoice on the first of each month which is to be paid within twenty (20) days. Upon expiration of this initial agreement, we would welcome the opportunity to discuss a more longstanding relationship.

I shall serve as the person at our Firm who is responsible for this representation. Justin Meyers and I will be your primary service providers and will be assisted by other professionals from our Nelson Mullins team as deemed necessary. We will file the necessary documentation required by the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA).

We take this commitment to you seriously, and you will always be assured of immediate access, constant communication and timely analysis you can depend on.

If the terms set forth in this letter are acceptable, please acknowledge acceptance below and return a signed copy to me. Knowing that timing is of the essence in this issue, a simple email confirmation will be sufficient, understanding a more formal contract may follow. Once again, we are pleased to represent Nova Scotia in this matter and look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

David H. Wilkins
