Attachement 11

The office engaged in its regular activities which included the dissemination of folders, posters and display material to the general public, to travel agents, airlines, steamshiplines, schools, universities and other organisations who had need for noncommercial, nonpolitical tourist information.

We introduced our Sales Guide at receptions to travel agents in New York and Philadelphia and attended the convention of the American Travel Agents Association (ASTA) in Las Vegas where we entertained American travel agents. We invited travel agents and travel writers to tour Germany and provided them with information.

Furthermore, we attended the convention of the American Society of Association Executives in Honolulu and the European Travel Mart in New York. At each event we maintained an information booth.

We traveled to Germany to attend a workshop and accompanied the ASTA Board to Wiesbaden, Germany.

We had meetings with publishers of travel trade papers, tour operators and other travel agents to find ways to promote travel of American citizens to Germany. Also we attend to internal matters of the office such as keeping accounts and making reports.
