CONSULTING SERVICES AGREEMENT

Yushu Technology Co., Ltd. ("Client") hereby enters into this Consulting Services Agreement ("Agreement") effective November 5, 2025 ("Effective Date"), to retain Mercury Public Affairs LLC ("Consultant"), as an independent contractor to perform the services described herein. Client and Consultant may each be referred to as a "Party" herein, and collectively as "Parties."

1. The Services. Client hereby retains Consultant to render consulting services to Client as specified on Schedule 1 attached hereto. In addition, subject to any limitations set forth on Schedule 1, Consultant will provide such other reasonable consulting services as the Parties shall mutually agree to in writing (together with the consulting services identified on Schedule 1, the "Services") during the Term (as described below).

2. Payment Terms. Client shall pay the fees and expenses set forth on Schedule 2, which is incorporated at this point, and which may be modified from time to time as mutually agreed to in writing. Payment in full of fees and expenses shall be made to Consultant within thirty (30) days after an invoice is rendered. For ongoing fees and expenses, Client will be billed on the 1st of every month. In the event that Client does not pay such fees and expenses per the invoices within the specified timeframe, Consultant may suspend provision of Services until payment is made.

(1) Where the Client's depository bank imposes measures (such as account freezing, payment limits, or prohibition of cross-border transfers) on the Client's account pursuant to the financial regulatory provisions of the applicable country or region; or (2) Where the foreign exchange administration authority in the Client's jurisdiction issues policies restricting the conversion or cross-border remittance of funds under this Agreement, provided that such restriction does not result from the Client's own illegal or non-compliant acts.

In the event of any of the foregoing circumstances, the Client shall, within five (5) working days of their occurrence, submit to the Consultant a written notice together with relevant supporting documents (including but not limited to bank notification letters and policy documents issued by foreign exchange administration authorities). The Parties shall, within fifteen (15) working days of receipt of such notice, enter into a supplementary agreement specifying the payment timeline and settlement method (e.g., switching to third-party payment or RMB settlement). If no supplementary agreement is reached within thirty (30) days of the date of such notice, the Consultant may suspend the provision of subsequent Services, this Agreement will terminate, and Consultant shall be entitled to payment of all Services fees, filing fees, and authorized and agreed upon expenses due through the date of termination, but shall not be entitled to claim any additional compensation from Client.

All payments made by Client shall be without deduction or offset, provided that the foregoing shall not apply if the consulting services are seriously defective (for example, if the Consultant intentionally or with gross negligence discloses the Client's confidential information), in which case the Client shall be entitled to claim a price reduction or damages in accordance with applicable law.

3. Term. The Term of this Agreement shall begin on the Effective Date and will continue in effect until February 4, 2026 (the "Term"). The Term of this Agreement shall automatically continue on a month-to-month basis thereafter, unless terminated by either Party on thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other Party.

4. Client Contact. Client shall designate to Consultant, from time to time in writing, the primary contact for reporting and billing purposes. Contacts are identified on Schedule 3. Consultant shall keep the primary contact for reporting purposes regularly informed as to the status of the performance of the Services in accordance with this consulting Agreement.

5. Independent Contractor Status. Consultant is an independent contractor and not an agent or employee of Client and Consultant will not hold itself out as such an agent or employee. Consultant has no authority or responsibility to enter into any contracts on behalf of Client.

6. Confidential Information; Trade Secrets. During the course of the performance of the Services, Consultant may have access to, have disclosed to it, or otherwise obtain information which Client identifies in writing or through labeling as being of a confidential nature, or which is otherwise disclosed in such a manner that a reasonable person would understand its confidential nature ("Confidential Information"). Consultant shall use such Confidential Information solely in performance of its obligations under this Agreement. Information shall not be deemed Confidential Information if such information is: (i) already known to Consultant free of any restriction at the time it is obtained; (ii) subsequently learned from an independent third Party free of any restriction; (iii) available publicly; (iv) developed independently by Consultant; or (iv) required to be produced by a court of competent jurisdiction, government agency or regulatory body, or by any law, rule, regulation, or external legal demand.

Both Parties shall keep confidential all Confidential Information disclosed by the other Party, including but not limited to the Client's technical drawings, source codes, customer lists, business plans, undisclosed financial data, and cooperation models, and neither Party shall disclose such information to any third party without prior written consent.

Consultant confirms that Client, as the disclosing Party, may own trade secrets which constitute valuable intellectual property rights, and any misappropriation thereof shall entitle the disclosing Party to pursue all legal remedies, including injunctive relief and damages.

Any new information derived from Confidential Information (e.g., analysis reports, improvement plans) shall be owned by Client, and such derivative information shall still be deemed Confidential Information.

If Consultant claims that the information is obtained from an independent third party, Consultant shall provide written proof (e.g., an authorization letter) that the third party is entitled to disclose such information; otherwise, such information shall still be deemed Confidential Information.

The confidentiality obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement and remain in effect for 3 years; provided, however, that the confidentiality period for information constituting trade secrets shall not be limited hereby and shall continue until such information enters the public domain.

For the purposes of Client protecting Client trade secrets, in the event any third party or government agency requests or seeks production by external legal demand of any information or materials in Consultant's possession related to Client trade secrets, Consultant shall, if permitted by law, provide Client with ten (10) days' advance written notice prior to producing any materials, data, or other information related to said trade secrets so that Client may seek, at its cost and expense, any applicable and appropriate legal or equitable relief related to the protection of said trade secrets.

7. Indemnification. Each Party will indemnify and hold harmless the other Party, its principals, employees, officers and agents, (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all liabilities, losses, claims, demands, actions, judgments, fines, fees, costs and expenses including but not limited to attorney's fees, arising out of or resulting from any breach, negligence, gross negligence or willful misconduct by the indemnifying Party, its employees, officers, directors and agents. Each Party's indemnification obligations set forth herein are conditioned upon the Indemnified Parties: (i) giving prompt written notice of any claim, action, suit or proceeding for which the Indemnified Parties are seeking indemnity; (ii) granting control of the defense and settlement of the action to the indemnifying Party, provided that no settlement admitting liability or that requires the payment of funds or the granting of legal or equitable relief will be entered into absent mutual agreement of the Parties, which will not be unreasonably delayed or withheld; and (iii) reasonably cooperating with the indemnifying Party with respect to the defense of the action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnified Parties may, at their option and expense, participate in the defense or settlement of any claim, action, suit or proceeding covered by this Section.

The indemnifying party shall indemnify the indemnified party as set out herein; if the indemnifying party, due to its intent or gross negligence, causes additional losses to the indemnified party, the indemnifying party shall remain liable for compensating such losses.

As set out herein, reasonable settlement of any legal or equitable claim will not be unreasonably delayed or withheld by the Parties.

8. Publicity. Neither Party will use the other Party's name, logo, trademarks, service marks or brands in any advertising, websites, marketing materials, promotional materials, social media accounts, publicity releases, or any other materials, or in any negotiations with third parties, without that Party's prior written approval. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Consultant may use Client trademarks and brands solely within the scope of providing Services.

9. Assignment. Neither Party will assign this Agreement or otherwise transfer, subcontract or delegate any of its rights and/or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the other and any attempt to do so will be void.

10. Notices. Any notice or other communication required or which may be given hereunder will be in writing and either delivered personally or mailed, by certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, or sent via email, and will be deemed given when so delivered personally, or if mailed, five (5) business days after the time of deposit in the US mail to the address set forth on Schedule 3, or, if by email, three (3) business days after being sent. Either Party may change the persons and address to which notices or other communications are to be sent to it by giving written notice of any such change in the manner provided herein for giving notice.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement is prepared in the English language, which language shall control and govern in the interpretation of and any dispute regarding this Agreement and its terms, and it will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America, applicable to agreements negotiated, executed and performed entirely within the State of New York, United States of America, without regard to its conflicts of laws rules. Both Parties submit to the exclusive personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in Albany County, NY, and waive any claim of forum non conveniens and objection to venue in said courts.

12. Liability of Consultant. Consultant shall bear no liability to Client for loss or damage in connection with advice or assistance given in good faith performance of the Services.

Provided that this shall not apply to losses caused by the Consultant's intent, fraud, or gross negligence. This clause shall not apply to personal injury, significant property losses or losses resulting from Consultant's violation of mandatory provisions of laws and regulations.

13. Dispute Resolution. In the event of any dispute between the Parties to this Agreement concerning the terms of this Agreement or matters related thereto, the Parties will first attempt as a condition precedent to further action to settle and resolve said dispute amicably and by agreement within thirty (30) days of written notice of a dispute by one Party to the other Party. Each Party shall deal in good faith through representatives authorized and empowered to resolve the dispute. In the event that said dispute cannot be settled and resolved amicably as set out above, said dispute shall be resolved exclusively and finally through arbitration as set out in this paragraph 13 and under the following terms and conditions:

(a) All disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement shall be finally settled and resolved under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce as are at present in force.

(b) Three arbitrators shall be appointed in accordance with said Rules. At least one arbitrator shall be proficient in the Chinese language.

(c) The arbitration shall take place in Washington, DC, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both Parties.

(d) The language of the arbitration shall be English. Each Party shall be entitled to engage and have present at its own expense interpreters for the Chinese or English language.

(e) Each Party shall produce documents originally drafted in English without translation. Any document drafted in a language other than English must be translated into English and properly certified as accurate, with said translation attached to the original document.

(f) All findings, comments, orders, and the arbitration decision and award itself, in addition to all documents and communications of every sort used in the arbitration, shall be in English. Chinese translations may be provided for convenience.

(g) The arbitrators may award compensatory damages pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. In principle, the arbitrators shall not award special, consequential, or punitive damages, except in the following circumstances:

Either Party's fraud or gross negligence, or Consultant's violation of confidentiality obligations and obligations restricting the use of Client's brands

(h) Each Party shall initially bear its own expenses, including all costs and attorneys' fees, in connection with presenting its case for arbitration, and the Parties shall share equally in the costs and expenses of the arbitration process itself, including, but not limited to, the cost of the arbitrators. However, in the final award, the arbitral tribunal as described herein shall set and fix the costs of the arbitration and shall decide which Party or Parties shall bear and pay the costs and in what proportions.

(i) Each Party irrevocably waives any right it has or may have to a jury trial concerning any dispute concerning this Agreement.

14. Foreign Agents Registration Act Compliance.

(a) The Parties acknowledge and agree that this Agreement requires Consultant to make certain filings in connection with and otherwise comply with the Foreign Agents Registration Act ("FARA"). Consultant shall have the duty and obligation to make any and all necessary filings and reports pursuant to FARA in connection with this Agreement.

(b) Client is required to provide to Consultant, immediately upon request, full and accurate details (in a form approved by Consultant) concerning any activities of or information regarding Client in connection with Consultant's compliance with FARA pursuant to this Agreement.

Client shall only be obligated to provide such information relevant to FARA compliance. Consultant's request must clearly specify the purpose of the information and its legal basis; Client shall provide such information within [5] business days upon receipt of the request (with an extension to [10] business days for complex information); the format of the information shall be determined through consultation of the Parties, and the Consultant shall not unreasonably refuse to accept information that is adequate for compliance purposes.

(c) To the extent any filing of Consultant (where such filing includes or should include information related to Client) is audited or reviewed, Client shall cooperate and provide assistance to Consultant in responding to any such investigation in such manner Consultant elects in its sole and exclusive discretion.

When Consultant determines the approach to respond to an investigation, it shall provide Client with a written notice of the specific plan at least [3] business days in advance.

(d) In addition to any other indemnification obligations set forth in this Agreement, an indemnifying Party shall indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from and against any and all penalties, fees, damages, liabilities, costs, and claims (including reasonable attorneys' fees) in connection with FARA which the Indemnified Parties may incur as a result of, related to, or arising out of, the indemnifying Party's failure to: (i) provide complete or accurate information to the Indemnified Parties; (ii) timely provide all requested information; (iii) abide by all applicable laws, rules or regulations; or (iv) abide by the terms of this Section.

15. General.

(a) No amendments or modifications shall be binding upon either Party unless made in writing and signed by both Parties.

(b) This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all previous agreements, courses of dealing, promises, proposals, representations, understandings, and negotiations, whether written or oral, between the Parties respecting the subject matter hereof.

(c) In the event any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement will be unimpaired, and the invalid or unenforceable provision will be replaced by a provision which, being valid and enforceable, comes closest to the intention of the Parties related to the underlying invalid or unenforceable provision. If for any reason any provision is deemed to be illegal, that provision is and will be deemed deleted ab initio and of no effect, and the remaining provisions of this Agreement will be unimpaired.

(d) This Agreement is executed in four copies, with each Party holding two copies, and all copies shall be deemed an original and have the same legal effect. All schedules to this Agreement shall form an integral part of this Agreement and shall have the same legal effect as the main text of this Agreement.

(e) This Agreement is in the English language and is the sole Agreement of the Parties. A Chinese translation of the Agreement is attached as Schedule 5, for the convenience of Client.

(f) The Parties agree to perform any further acts and to execute and deliver any further documents which may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

(g) The section headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and do not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

SCHEDULE 2

Compensation and Expenses

For Services identified in Schedule 1, Client will pay Consultant the following fees in U.S. Dollars ($):

$75,000 per month during the Term, per the terms of Section 2 of this Agreement.

Consultant is not obligated to and will not perform Services until (i) this Agreement is duly signed and executed by Client and delivered to Consultant, and (ii) $305 is received by Consultant for payment of initial filing fee registration to the FARA Registration Unit.

The Services fee agreed under this Agreement shall cover all relevant expenses incurred by Consultant in the course of providing Services for the performance of this Agreement, including but not limited to: travel expenses (covering transportation, accommodation, catering and incidentals), service fees, material costs, administrative and office expenses, etc. This clause is intended to define the scope of expenses covered; save for additional expenses otherwise stipulated in this Agreement or confirmed in writing by both Parties, no other expenses related to the Services hereunder shall be separately charged.

Client shall pay and reimburse Consultant the sum of $305 (Three Hundred and Five U.S. Dollars) (or such other amount as may be amended from time to time by applicable laws). Such amount shall be used for paying the filing fees for each supplemental registration statement (which shall be submitted every six months from the initial registration date) and all other fees, costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Consultant for complying with compliance requirements in relevant jurisdictions; the aforesaid fees and expenses shall be invoiced and paid in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 of this Agreement.

The aforesaid compliance fees shall be subject to the following restrictions:

1. "FARA-related compliance fees" shall be limited to: registration fees and filing fees explicitly required by the U.S. Department of Justice; FARA-specialized attorney fees (if any) shall be borne by the Consultant.
2. Compliance fees for other jurisdictions shall be limited to those incurred within the territories of China and the United States.
3. For any single compliance expense exceeding $5,000, a supplementary agreement shall be signed in advance.
4. The total amount of all compliance fees shall not exceed $10,000 during the term of cooperation hereunder, subject to compliance with all laws, rules, and regulations.

Payment for all fees and expenses shall be made by wire transfers to Consultant's bank per attached Schedule 4.

The invoices issued by the Consulting Party must include a detailed listing of fees (including but not limited to service period), filing fees, and approved expenses;

Any changes to bank account details shall require the Consultant to provide written notice to the Client at least 10 working days in advance (accompanied by sealed and confirmed new account information). Payments made by the Client to the original account shall remain valid until receipt of such written notice of change. In the event that the Client makes duplicate payments due to the
