Dear Lydia:

Capitol Counsel LLC ("Capitol Counsel") has been engaged by the Government of the Republic of Turkey ("Turkey") to provide, as an independent contractor, lobbying and government relations services to Turkey, in accordance with the provisions of an agreement between Turkey and Capitol Counsel ("Services Agreement"). An executed copy of the Services Agreement is attached as Appendix 1. The provisions of the Services Agreement are incorporated herein and made a part hereof.

With this agreement, Capitol Counsel is engaging LB International Solutions LLC ("LB International") to provide, as a subcontractor to Capitol Counsel, certain of the services that are to be provided by Capitol Counsel to Turkey in accordance with the provisions of the Services Agreement. The services to be provided by LB International consist of the services identified and described in Appendix 2 and such other services as Capitol Counsel and you may agree from time to time.

The term of LB International's engagement as a subcontractor is November 1, 2020 until December 31, 2020. The engagement may be terminated by Capitol Counsel or by you at any time by notice delivered to the other 14 days in advance of the effective date of termination.

LB International has represented to Capitol Counsel that LB International's engagement by Capitol Counsel, and the performance of the services to be rendered by LB International as a subcontractor, do not and will not constitute a default or breach of the provisions of any agreement or contract between LB International and any other person or a violation of any fiduciary or other obligation or duty of LB International to any other person.

6. Termination:

(a) This Agreement shall terminate upon its natural expiration if not renewed.

(c) Should this Agreement terminate prior to its natural expiration, any fees paid to Capitol Counsel by Turkey that exceed the pro-rata share of earned fees apportioned on a daily basis up to the date of termination shall be refunded by Capitol Counsel to Turkey.

7. Monthly Reporting and Quarterly Performance Assessment: Capitol Counsel shall provide monthly a written report to Turkey succinctly describing its work on Turkey's behalf. Such reports need not include calculations of the time spent by the individual members of the Capitol Counsel team. Further, every three months, or as often as Turkey may desire, Capitol Counsel shall present to Turkey a written assessment of its performance during the preceding period. If, upon reviewing the assessment, Turkey is not satisfied with Capitol Counsel's performance, Turkey may, at its sole discretion, terminate this Agreement according to the terms stated herein.

8. Privileged Information: Capitol Counsel will use all permissible efforts to protect privileged communications or other confidential information developed by it or provided to it by Turkey during the term of this Agreement. This obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement and any renewals for a period of not less than two years. 10. Conflicts: Turkey acknowledges Capitol Counsel's breadth of practice, which may give rise to the potential that it may represent clients in unrelated matters whose interests are contrary to Turkey's. Nonetheless, even the appearance of a conflict could render unproductive the relationship contemplated by this Agreement. Therefore, Capitol Counsel shall endeavor not only to avoid actual conflicts, but the appearance of conflicts as well. It shall immediately assess whether it represents any clients whose interests are contrary to Turkey. If so, then it shall inform Turkey, and then Turkey and Capitol Counsel shall work together to determine whether and how to resolve any apparent or actual conflict. Only on a case-by-case basis will Turkey acknowledge that a concurrent representation in an unrelated matter is appropriate. In order to assist in the process of identifying potential conflicts, Capitol Counsel shall consult with the Turkish Embassy's legal counsel in identifying those issues, which, if addressed in other client matters, may present a conflict.

11. Choice of Law: This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Republic of Turkey. The Turkish Republic courts located in Ankara, Turkey shall be the venue for resolving any dispute related to the interpretation and application of this Agreement that cannot otherwise be settled amicably by the parties.

12. Power to Bind: Absent the express written consent of Turkey, neither Capitol Counsel nor its consultants and subcontractors have authority to bind Turkey in any manner whatsoever.
