9. Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

Scribe has been retained to raise awareness and educate policymakers in the U.S. government (Congress and the Biden Administration) to use its diplomatic weight, as one of Chad's most credible international actors, to compel transitional authorities to respect human rights and the transitional timeline. There was a coup d'état in Chad in 2021, that resulted in Mahamat Idriss Deby, the son of the late dictator Idriss Deby, to seize control of the country unconstitutionally. The United States swiftly condemned the repression on Oct. 20, 2022, but the Chadian government has not faced sanctions or suspensions. Two months after the coup, Deby traveled to Washington, D.C. to participate in the U.S-Africa Leaders Summit while other coup plotters were not allowed to participate, which is a contradiction in U.S.-Africa policy. Those responsible for the repression of Chadian civil society groups and the takeover of the Presidency of Chad should be sanctioned and not allowed to visit the U.S.
