Suite 500
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. Szlavik,

This letter serves to formally confirm the engagement of Scribe Strategies & Advisors, Inc., by the Government of the Republic of South Sudan through this Embassy, to provide strategic advisory and logistical services.

As discussed, the scope of your engagement includes, but is not limited to, assisting the Government of South Sudan with engagements involving the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Homeland Security regarding the repatriation and reintegration of South Sudanese nationals currently subject to deportation from the United States. Furthermore, your advisory will encompass enhancing bilateral relations, promoting trade and investment opportunities, raising the Government of South Sudan's profile in the United States, and providing strategic communications and media counsel.

This letter memorializes the understanding and intent of both parties to proceed while the detailed retainer agreement is finalized. The forthcoming retainer agreement will comprehensively set forth the terms of engagement, including financial terms, responsibilities, and compliance requirements. We look forward to a productive and successful collaboration.

Sincerely,
