Amendment to Registration Statement Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. File this amendment form for any changes to a registration. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic amendment to registration statement and uploading any supporting documents at https://www.fara.gov.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: https://www.fara.gov. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: https://www.fara.gov

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .75 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

The registrant's responses to Question 11 appear to have not uploaded in DOJ's eFile system. Accordingly, the registrant is providing these responses in this Amendment:

ACTIVITIES-QUESTION 11

Government of the Republic of Trinidad & Tobago

Regarding its representation of the foreign principal, Registrant engaged in contacts and political activities concerning matters of interest to the foreign principal during the reporting period. Registrant more broadly counseled the foreign principal on the state of affairs in the U.S., evolving public developments around the federal government, and identified strategies and engagement opportunities to enhance the bilateral relationship between the foreign principal and the U.S. Registrant generally advised the foreign principal in achieving economic diversification via potential investments and other partnership opportunities. Registrant also continued to communicate and meet with Executive Branch and Legislative officials key to strengthening the U.S.-Trinidad and Tobago economic and security bilateral relationship. This included communicating with Administration officials and with Members of Congress and their staffs, issues affecting the broader Caribbean region, developments in Venezuela, energy security matters, bilateral trade, COVID 19 global pandemic-related developments, and the foreign principal's economic diversification. Moreover, Registrant also continued to discuss with the foreign principal the U.S.'s national security interests and related matters.

Government of Bermuda

Registrant generally counseled the foreign principal around its economic issues, as well as its bilateral relationship with and the state of affairs within the United States. Registrant interacted with Members of Congress, their staffs, and other policymakers on the foreign principal's behalf. Specifically, Registrant engaged Congressional offices to discuss international tax proposals included in the Budget Reconciliation Act, and global tax issues and actions taking place at the Organisation of Economic Co-operation and Development

The Government of Barbados

Registrant counseled foreign principal on its bilateral relationship with and the state of affairs within the United States. Registrant worked to arrange meetings and calls with Members of Congress and their staffs to engage on matters related to the foreign principal's economy, the expansion of financial services opportunities in the broader Caribbean region, bilateral trade, and on issues mutually relevant to the U.S. government and the foreign principal.
