During the time period of August 5-10, Vanguard Africa agrees to:

2) Plan and participate in a consultation meeting with Vanguard Africa staff -- that will include our key board members -- in order to take stock of the week's meetings, as well as discuss campaign priorities, overall strategy and rollout in the context of the upcoming presidential election in Cameroon.

3) Before your arrival, Vanguard Africa will circulate a meeting agenda and will take comprehensive notes during each meeting in Washington, DC. We also agree to identify key meeting takeaways and circulate proposed next steps at the conclusion of your trip.

In order to legally undertake these tasks, Vanguard Africa must register with the U.S. Department of Justice and the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA), and pay the related fees. To cover the costs associated with the filings, legal proceedings and related work associated with our partnership during this period, Vanguard Africa will require an overall and upfront payment of $15,000 USD.
