Vanguard Africa

Mr. Akere Muna
Cameroon

RE: Agreement of Cooperation between Vanguard Africa and Akere Muna

Vanguard Africa is honored to support Mr. Akere Muna and his efforts to potentially seek the presidency of Cameroon and to assist in boosting his profile, as well as expanding his professional network and media contacts in Washington, DC ahead of the upcoming election.

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) is to confirm that Mr. Muna, and his campaign associates, have agreed to work with Vanguard Africa as its primary agent to provide support during the period of August 5-10, 2017. During this time, Mr. Muna will be in Washington, DC for several days of high-level consultative meetings, including with the Vanguard Africa team.

During the time period of August 5-10, Vanguard Africa agrees to:

1) Undertake sole responsibility for organizing and facilitating meetings with officials at the U.S. State Department and U.S. Congress, key NGO leaders, and influential media contacts in Washington, DC.

2) Plan and participate in a consultation meeting with Vanguard Africa staff -- that will include our key board members -- in order to take stock of the week's meetings, as well as discuss campaign priorities, overall strategy and rollout in the context of the upcoming presidential election in Cameroon.

3) Before your arrival, Vanguard Africa will circulate a meeting agenda and will take comprehensive notes during each meeting in Washington, DC. We also agree to identify key meeting takeaways and circulate proposed next steps at the conclusion of your trip.

In order to legally undertake these tasks, Vanguard Africa must register with the U.S. Department of Justice and the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA), and pay the related fees. To cover the costs associated with the filings, legal proceedings and related work associated with our partnership during this period, Vanguard Africa will require an overall and upfront payment of $15,000 USD.
