Response to Item 10

Item 10: Will the activities on behalf of the above foreign principal include political activities as defined in Section 1(o) of the Act. If yes, describe all such political activities indicating, among other things, the relations, interests or policies to be influenced together with the means to be employed to achieve this purpose. The response must include, but not be limited to, activities involving lobbying, promotion, perception management, public relations, economic development, and preparation and dissemination of informational materials.

The United States assisted the Iraqi people in the removal of a dictator who ruled Iraq for decades, and helped the establishment of a democratic system that is in operation since 2005, in addition, the US have spent hundreds of billions of USD in rebuilding Iraq

The US forces left Iraq in 2011 and only to return in 2014 to assist the Iraqis to defeat the ISIS terrorists with the cooperation of multi-national forces as part of a large coalition that is headed by the US

The US currently have 5200 soldiers on the ground, an embassy in Baghdad and consulate in Arbil. The US government signed a Security Framework Agreement with the Iraqi Government in 2008 and as a result the two countries are cooperating in many sectors such as economy, investment, trade, education and culture.

The US adopts policy makers in government and congress are coming up with new policies that affect the Iraqi people directly and indirectly, and is the intention of IAC to engage with US policy makers to illustrate and show what policies that could be of mutual benefit to both countries and would serve the people of Iraq as well as the US

The means of influencing such policies would be by writing letters and email, conducting meetings virtual or face to face with members of Congress and/or Government officials, and by taking part seminars or taking part in Webinars with think tanks and study centres that are close to the policy makers
