Response to Item 9

Item 9: Describe fully the activities the registrant engages in or proposes to engage in on behalf of the above foreign principal.

Influencing U.S. public opinion on behalf of any foreign entity or individual in Turkey is not part of the Turken Foundation's mission. Nor has the Turken Foundation ("Foundation"), on behalf of any foreign interest, knowingly intended to influence U.S. public opinion with respect to U.S. domestic or foreign policy or with respect to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of the Turkish Government or any Turkish political party.

The Foundation understands, however, that certain of its activities could be construed as "political activities" as defined in the Foreign Agents Registration Act. These include (1) the Foundation's hosting of several speeches that Turkish President Erdogan has given to annual fundraising dinners of the Foundation while he is in New York for the United Nations General Assembly, at which President Ergodan has made remarks concerning FETO and at which representatives from Turgev have also spoken; (2) retweets by the Foundation of remarks by President Erdogan at Foundation events in the United States, including remarks about the July 2016 coup attempt in Turkey and FETO; and (3) the inclusion of coup-related content in the travel itineraries of U.S. Muslim students for whom the Foundation sponsors trips to Turkey in collaboration with Turgev.
