AUTHORIZATION FOR ASSOCIATION OF COUNSEL

1. The Government of Mexico ("GOVERNMENT"), hereby agrees to be represented by Global Action on Gun Violence ("GAGV"), as counselors and attorneys at law, effective September 1, 2022, in one or more civil actions in U.S. courts against U.S. gun manufacturers, distributors, or dealers ("DEFENDANTS") alleging that DEFENDANTS unlawfully marketed guns to commit crimes or cause other damage in Mexico.

2. On August 2, 2021, the GOVERNMENT decided to proceed with Stage 3 of this litigation, having accepted to retain Jonathan E. Lowy to file the complaint in Boston, act as the Government's legal counsel before the appropriate U.S. tribunals during the legal proceedings ensuing, and therefore take all the needed and convenient procedural actions to promote and safeguard the Government's best interests.

   2.1. In Stage 3, GAGV will provide the GOVERNMENT with periodic reports on the status and development of the litigation. This stage will conclude with the definitive conclusion of the litigation.

3. GAGV accepts to collaborate with Shadowen PLCC (the "FIRM") in providing legal representation to the GOVERNMENT regarding the matters abovementioned.

4. The GOVERNMENT undertakes no obligation to pay attorneys' fees to GAGV for the services of its attorneys. However, nothing in this agreement shall preclude GAGV from seeking an award of attorneys' fees from defendant(s) or other parties or entities, from raising money on its own behalf to fund litigation-related expenses associated with this representation and others, or from receiving donations or grants from the GOVERNMENT.

5. In some states attorneys' fees and/or costs can be assessed against a losing party. In the event that attorneys' fees are assessed against the GOVERNMENT in an action arising out of the matter described in paragraph 1, the GOVERNMENT is wholly responsible for those fees. GAGV is not expected to contribute to or assist in paying for any assessed fees or costs.

6. Any costs advanced by GAGV in prosecution of these claims shall be reimbursed by the GOVERNMENT within a reasonable time upon request. The GOVERNMENT may recover any of these costs out of any recovery by the GOVERNMENT in the case, whether obtained through compromise, judgment, or fee or cost award, and GAGV also may recover any such costs that have not been paid for by the GOVERNMENT. Such costs may include, without limitation, travel expenses, photocopying or printing charges, long distance telephone charges, filing fees, fees and expenses for experts, investigators, and consultants, court transcripts and court reporter fees. GAGV will seek prior authorization from the GOVERNMENT for any individual expenditures greater than $2,000 USD; however, if the GOVERNMENT is not responsive promptly approving or denying authorization, and prompt expenditure is necessary for the case, GAGV may incur expenses without prior approval and seek recovery under this provision.

7. Should GAGV withdraw or be discharged from the representation of the GOVERNMENT, GAGV shall be paid out for all costs (as defined above) advanced by GAGV, subject to authorization.

8. This agreement relates to and provides for professional services to be rendered only in representing the GOVERNMENT in the matter described in paragraph 1 above. Representation of the GOVERNMENT by GAGV in any other matter is not included and must be the subject of a separate agreement.

9. The GOVERNMENT acknowledges that GAGV is a non-profit advocacy organization that, as part of its work, advocates for changes or reform to gun industry policies and procedures, as well as to American federal, state and local regulations, policies and laws, and law enforcement practices. The reforms and policy changes may be the same, similar, or complementary with those the GOVERNMENT may support or advocate, or those reforms may be inconsistent, adverse, or different from those sought by the GOVERNMENT. All of GAGV's policy work is aimed at ending the gun violence epidemic.

10. Waiver of Conflicts. GAGV may represent many types of clients, including governments, in many different kinds of matters relating to gun violence prevention. The GOVERNMENT is aware that GAGV may also represent other plaintiffs in these contemplated actions or related actions in which the GOVERNMENT is a party, including individual victims of gun violence, and that those GOVERNMENTs may seek recovery from the same defendants. The GOVERNMENT agrees that GAGV remains free to represent any present or future client, including governments, in any other matters, including other victims with concurrent interests arising from the same facts as the claims and incidents referenced in paragraph 1. GAGV commits to representing all parties with competence, diligence and will exercise its professional judgment on the GOVERNMENT's behalf. The GOVERNMENT is aware that if the defendant has limited resources to pay for recovery for multiple plaintiffs that representation could pose a conflict of interest. However, the GOVERNMENT and GAGV expressly waive such a conflict and consent to GAGV's multiple representations. The GOVERNMENT and GAGV agree to waive any potential conflicts. GAGV agrees not to share any confidential information learned in specifically and solely representing the GOVERNMENT that does not affect or impact other aspects of the case.

11. This agreement constitutes the sole and only agreement of the parties hereto and supersedes any prior understanding or written oral agreement between the parties in connection with this matter, including the agreement between the Government and Brady Legal signed on June 30, 2020. GAGV will assume responsibility from Brady Legal regarding the aforementioned agreement.
