U.S. Department of Justice

Washington, DC 20530

Exhibit B to Registration Statement Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. A registrant must furnish as an Exhibit B copies of each written agreement and the terms and conditions of each oral agreement with his foreign principal, including all modifications of such agreements, or, where no contract exists, a full statement of all the circumstances by reason of which the registrant is acting as an agent of a foreign principal. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic Exhibit B form at https://www.fara.gov.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: https://www.fara.gov. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public in print and online at: https://www.fara.gov .

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .32 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE SECRETARIAT OF FOREIGN RELATIONS OF THE UNITED MEXICAN STATES AND GLOBAL ACTION ON GUN VIOLENCE

The Secretariat of Foreign Relations of the United Mexican States ("SRE"), represented by the Consul General of Mexico in El Paso, Texas, Mauricio Ibarra, and Global Action on Gun Violence ("GAGV"), represented by Jonathan Lowy, henceforth referred to as "The Parties".

CONSIDERING the need to undertake activities addressed to prevent and reduce gun violence in Mexico (including from guns trafficked from the United States), as well as deaths and injuries in Mexico that stem from that violence,

WILLING to share and obtain information, strategies, and tactics to solve problems that stem from gun violence and gun trafficking;

ACKNOWLEDGING the importance of the expertise, experience and knowledge of GAGV and its staff on causes and solutions to gun violence;

ARTICLE 1
Objective

The objective of the Agreement is to foster collaboration between the Parties to jointly undertake activities with a strong legal perspective, related to reducing gun violence, gun trafficking, gun deaths and gun injuries in Mexico.

ARTICLE 2
Scope of Application and Modalities of Cooperation

The scope of application and modalities of cooperation referred in Article 1 will encompass the activities, projects and services set forth in Annex I.

ARTICLE 3
Authorized Coordinators of the Parties

In order to develop properly the activities, projects and services referred in Annex I of this Agreement, the Parties will appoint a responsible coordinator, to whom notices, requests and formal communications must be delivered:

Thus, the SRE appoints the Consul General of Mexico in El Paso, Mauricio Ibarra Ponce de Leon; the Legal Adviser of SRE, Alejandro Celorio Alcántara, and the Deputy Legal Adviser of SRE, Miguel Angel Reyes Moncayo, as responsible coordinators on their behalf.

GAGV appoints Jonathan Lowy as responsible coordinator on his behalf.

ARTICLE 4
Reports

Jonathan Lowy will keep SRE appropriately informed of the progress achieved, and provide detailed entries describing the activities, projects and services once accomplished.

At the end of this agreement, SRE may request a final report describing the overall work performed by GAGV under this Agreement, explaining how said work contributed to the advancement of Mexico's interests in connection with gun trafficking and gun violence.

ARTICLE 5
Use of Information and Intellectual Property

The Parties may use all of the information generated by virtue of this Agreement, except in such cases where the Party that supplied the information has expressly placed restrictions or conditions of its use.

The result of the studies derived from this Agreement may be used to publish articles, conduct conferences and seminars within the framework of Article 2.

The intellectual property rights that may result from the cooperation activities developed throughout this Agreement will be governed by the relevant national legislation, as well as by the international conventions binding upon the United Mexican States and the United States of America.

ARTICLE 6
Costs and Expenses

Considering the best established practices in the United States, in order to secure the implementation of the activities, projects and services performed by GAGV pursuant to this Agreement, the SRE makes available the total amount of $250,000.00 USD within the following thirty (30) days after the signature of the present Agreement.

Article 7
Privileges and Immunities

Despite anything to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement will be construed as an implicit or explicit waiver of the privileges and immunities afforded by international or domestic legislation to the United Mexican States.

ARTICLE 8
Early Termination

SRE may terminate the present Agreement at any time, with or without cause, upon 30 days written notice to GAGV. Likewise, GAGV can terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause, upon 30 days written notice, but shall take care that SRE is not prejudiced in doing so.

If this Agreement is terminated before the twelve months period as stated in Article 10, GAGV must return to SRE the funds previously paid. However, GAGV will be entitled to deduct an amount for the services provided before termination, as mutually agreed with SRE.

ARTICLE 9
Dispute Resolutions

The Parties agree that the laws of Washington, D.C. will rule this Agreement.

Any dispute arising from the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement, will be settled by mutual agreements between the Parties.

In case of not being able to resolve it amicably, expressly renouncing to any other forum, the Parties will submit the dispute to the jurisdiction of the competent courts of the city of Washington, D.C.

Article 10
Commencement date

This Agreement shall take effect on the date of its signature by the Parties and shall expire in all events twelve (12) months later.
