Imperial Independent Media, LLC ("Imperial"), a Nebraska limited liability company, agrees to provide limited consulting services to the Coalition for Global Prosperity ("CGP"), a United Kingdom-based not-for-profit organization, for their planned delegation visit to the United States scheduled for 14-16 November, 2023.

Imperial agrees to begin the process of scheduling meetings and activities for the delegation, in accordance with congressional and activity availability. Imperial will make a best effort to schedule the following meetings, though it cannot guarantee completion, as government schedules can be very unpredictable. Imperial agrees to provide a consultant on-site for the duration of the meetings, so as to provide adaptability in the event of shifting schedules:

- One U.S. Representative (Republican, preferably Speaker Johnson)
- One U.S. Representative (Democrat)
- Members' Tour of the U.S. Capitol Building – OR –
- Tour of the White House

CGP agrees to furnish, in advance, a payment in the amount of $5,000 USD plus expenses of travel and lodging, in exchange for the logistical planning and execution of planned meetings in Washington, D.C. Expenses will be furnished for reimbursement within five (5) business days of the conclusion of the trip, and are due payable within the following ten (10) business days.

If CGP is unsatisfied with the services rendered by Imperial, they may request, at their discretion, and within ten (10) business days, a refund for half (50 percent) of their consulting fee. These consulting fees are otherwise not refundable in the event of cancellation or postponement of the delegation; however, a good faith effort will be rendered to reschedule meetings and events in the case of a postponement, regardless of the reason.

This consulting agreement is limited to the items referenced above. Any disputes should be handled through mediation prior to engagement in any Court of Law.
