Amendment to Registration Statement Pursuant to the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended

INSTRUCTIONS. File this amendment form for any changes to a registration. Compliance is accomplished by filing an electronic amendment to registration statement and uploading any supporting documents at https://www.fara.gov.

Privacy Act Statement. The filing of this document is required for the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, 22 U.S.C. § 611 et seq., for the purposes of registration under the Act and public disclosure. Provision of the information requested is mandatory, and failure to provide the information is subject to the penalty and enforcement provisions established in Section 8 of the Act. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, copy of informational materials or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this Act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the FARA Unit in Washington, DC. Statements are also available online at the FARA Unit's webpage: https://www.fara.gov. One copy of every such document, other than informational materials, is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of any and all documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. The Attorney General also transmits a semi-annual report to Congress on the administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents registered under the Act and the foreign principals they represent. This report is available to the public online at: https://www.fara.gov.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average .75 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, FARA Unit, Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, National Security Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, DC 20503.

Statement of Activities Under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA)
Gunster Strategies Worldwide
Foreign Principal: [Name of Foreign Principal - to be inserted]
Gunster Strategies Worldwide ("Gunster Strategies"), a U.S.-based strategic communications and public affairs advisory firm, hereby registers under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (22 U.S.C. §611 et seq.) in connection with its engagement on behalf of a newly retained foreign principal.
Nature of Services Provided
Pursuant to its engagement, Gunster Strategies has provided strategic advisory, communications, and public affairs support to the Foreign Principal focused on U.S. foreign policy, national security considerations, and congressional and executive-branch awareness related to matters of significant international concern.
Specifically, Gunster Strategies' activities have included:
U.S. Government Outreach and Engagement
Gunster Strategies organized and facilitated outreach efforts with officials and staff within the U.S. Department of State and the United States Congress for the purpose of informing policymakers of the Foreign Principal's perspectives on issues affecting U.S. strategic and security interests. These activities were limited to arranging meetings, preparing background materials, and advising on messaging, without engaging in direct lobbying for legislation or appropriations.
Strategic Communications and Media Engagement
Gunster Strategies provided strategic counsel regarding public narrative development and assisted in securing the placement of opinion-editorial content in U.S. media outlets addressing matters relevant to U.S. national security and foreign policy. This included coordination supporting the publication of an op-ed in The Daily Caller authored by a representative of the Foreign Principal, highlighting the strategic importance of Diego Garcia and the Chagos Archipelago to United States security interests

Policy Contextualization and Stakeholder Education
Gunster Strategies supported efforts to contextualize the Foreign Principal's position within broader U.S. policy debates, including discussions concerning the United Kingdom's agreement to transfer sovereignty over the Chagos Archipelago and the implications for U.S. military posture in the Indo-Pacific region. Related media coverage addressing these issues appeared in U.S. national outlets, including The Daily Caller, underscoring the relevance of the matter to American security stakeholders .
Scope and Limitations
Gunster Strategies did not act as legal counsel, did not represent the Foreign Principal before any U.S. court or administrative body, and did not engage in fundraising, electioneering, or campaign-related activities. All services were advisory, strategic, and informational in nature, and conducted in compliance with applicable U.S. laws and regulations.
Purpose of Registration
Gunster Strategies submits this registration in the interest of full transparency and compliance with the Foreign Agents Registration Act, reflecting its role in advising and supporting a foreign principal in communications and outreach activities directed at U.S. policymakers and the American public.
