Re: Engagement for Advocacy and Representation in Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Mikhailovich,

Following our recent discussions, this letter serves as a formal engagement agreement between Sweeney & Associates (the "Firm") and you (the "Client") regarding representation and advocacy efforts in Washington, D.C. Our work will focus on strategic outreach and engagement with key stakeholders in the new administration, executive departments, and Capitol Hill, with a particular emphasis on the evolving U.S. policy landscape concerning Ukraine and Eastern Europe under the newly inaugurated Trump administration.

Given the recent geopolitical shifts and the administration's policy realignment in Eastern Europe, this engagement will center on navigating these changes, advocating for your interests, and ensuring that your objectives are effectively communicated to policymakers in Washington. Our representation will include:

- Direct engagement with administration officials in relevant agencies and departments.
- Outreach to congressional offices on key committees with jurisdiction over U.S.-Eastern Europe relations.
- Strategic advisory services on U.S. foreign policy developments impacting your interests.
- Public affairs and media positioning where necessary to advance your objectives.

In compliance with U.S. laws and regulations governing foreign representation, my Firm will be filing under the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA) with the U.S. Department of Justice. This filing ensures full transparency and compliance with legal requirements when representing foreign interests before the U.S. government.

Term and Fees

This engagement will be for an initial period of twelve (12) months, commencing upon execution of this letter, with the option to renew upon mutual agreement. The professional fee for these services will be $50,000 per month, exclusive of any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the engagement. Payment for two (2) months is required in advance. Any
