To encourage the State Department reevaluate the outdated policies that undermine leaders like President Dodik, who align with present administration's worldview, which culminated in the unlawful abuse of the autopen enlarging the sanctions against Srpska citizens.

To encourage the State Department evaluate materials showing the religious persecution of those in the Republic of Srpska via a deep, systemic effort to suppress national identities and erode Judeo-Christian values. o recognize attempts to homogenize diverse nations under unelected bureaucratic control, threatening the very cultural and religious foundations that bind allies like the United States, Israel, and the Republic of Srpska.

Re: Representation for Litigation Strategy and OFAC Challenge.

Dear Minister Klokic,

We are pleased that You have retained GS2 Law PLLC ("Firm") to represent the Republic of Srpska ("ROS") in connection with the following scope of work:

1. Initial advisory work for the legal representation of ROS and/or certain identified individuals before the DC Federal Court
2. Initial advisory work for the legal representation of ROS and/or certain identified individuals before the Office of Foreign Asset Control.

Fees:

- (a) Robert Garson shall have primary conduct of Your matters.
- (b) For such representation, ordinarily our fees are based on hourly rates for time expended on Your behalf. The rates currently are: $1000 per hour for Robert Garson, between $650-$350 per hour for other lawyers and $225 for paralegals. There may be occasions where discrete tasks are delegated to associates. Please note, the firm bills in 6-minute subdivisions of an hour. However, in respect of the above scope of Work, the firm has agreed to a flat fee of USD $100,000 for two (2) months work.
- (c) Before any phase of further billable work is to be undertaken, it is the Firm's policy to endeavor, where practicable, to obtain email consent for such phase of work, having provided a reasonable estimate based upon the information available at that time.
- (d) In the event You request the Firm to perform services which are outside the scope of the anticipated legal services, we will discuss such services with ROS in advance and will notify ROS whether such services require an additional fee (whether flat fee or hourly). To the extent any matter we are handling for ROS concerns other areas of expertise, we may call upon or refer ROS to other qualified parties (e.g., counsel in a foreign jurisdiction) but will not seek to retain any other individuals in a representational capacity without Your explicit prior approval. All costs and fees incurred with regard to such outside counsel shall be Your sole responsibility.

When establishing our Fee for the services that we render we are guided primarily by the time and labor required. However, we also consider other appropriate factors, such as the novelty and difficulty of the legal issues involved; the legal skill required to perform the particular matter; the time-saving use of our internal resources (including applicable research, analysis, data and documentation) that we have previously developed and stored electronically or otherwise; the fee customarily charged by comparable firms for similar legal services; the amount of money involved; the risk and results obtained; and any time constraints imposed by either the client or the circumstances. Despite our reasonable efforts on Client's behalf, we cannot guarantee the outcome or success of any matter, project or transaction for which we render services.

Miami

You agree to pay, in advance, for all out-of-pocket expenses or disbursements made on Your behalf, including, without limitation, for travel, market studies, data providers, or any other third-party providers as deemed by Firm as necessary, courier services and travel expenses incurred without deduction from any monies remitted to You. For the avoidance of doubt, no out-of-pocket expenses or disbursements will be made without explicit email consent.

Responsibilities of the Parties: We will take reasonable steps to keep You informed of the material progress and material developments of the matters for which we render services on Your behalf and to respond promptly to inquiries and communications from You. You agree to be truthful with us, to cooperate, to keep us informed of any relevant information and relevant developments which may come to Your attention, to abide by this agreement, to pay our bills according to the fee arrangement above and to keep us advised of Your address, telephone number and whereabouts.

Potential Conflicts of Interest: From time to time Your activities may involve other clients represented by the Firm. By signing this letter, You acknowledge that we have disclosed to You that we represent clients who directly or through an affiliate may be adverse parties to You in current or future matters. Additionally, You acknowledge that You have no objection to our representing such clients in connection with matters unrelated to Your direct matters. This consent does not apply to any matter in which You have a direct interest. Further, this consent does not permit us to use any confidential information obtained during our representation of You in any matter.

Given the scope of our business and the scope of our client representations through our various offices in the United States and abroad, it is possible that some of our present or future clients have or will have matters adverse to You while we are representing You. We understand that You have no objection to our representation of parties with interests adverse to You and waive any actual or potential conflict of interest as long as those other engagements are not substantially related to our services to You.

We agree, however, that Your consent to, and waiver of, such representation shall not apply in any instance where, as a result of our representation of You, we have obtained proprietary or other confidential information of a non-public nature, that, if known to such other client used in any such other matter by such client to Your material disadvantage or potential material disadvantage. By agreeing to this waiver of any claim of conflicts as to matters unrelated to the subject matter of our services to You, You also agree that we are not obliged to notify You when we undertake such a matter that may be adverse to You.

Similarly, new lawyers frequently join our firm. These lawyers may have represented parties adverse to You while employed by other law firms or organizations. We assume, consistent with ethical standards, that You have no objection to our continuing representation of You notwithstanding our lawyers' prior professional relationships.

Discharge and Withdrawal: You or we have the right to terminate our representation at any time upon thirty (30) days written notice. If this agreement is terminated, regardless of the reason, we shall be entitled to our Fees and costs as set forth herein due to us.

Negotiability of Fees: You acknowledge that we have advised You that our Fees are not set by law and is negotiable between You and us and that You and we have discussed and agree upon our Fees as provided herein. In signing this agreement, You acknowledge that You have been advised to seek independent legal and business advice with respect to this agreement, and that You have either sought and obtained such advice or deliberately refrained from doing so.

Dispute Resolution: : In the event any dispute arises concerning service by the Firm, the dispute shall be settled by the Legal Fee Arbitration Program sponsored by the Florida Bar; in the event the dispute involves an issue which the Legal Fee Arbitration Program is unwilling or unable to adjudicate, the dispute shall be resolved through binding arbitration in Miami, Florida under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) before a single arbitrator selected pursuant to, and operating under, the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA as then in effect pursuant to Florida Law. By executing this letter, You make a binding and final election to arbitrate in accordance herewith. The award of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding, and judgment thereon may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction. The expenses of the arbitration shall be paid by the non-prevailing party, as determined by the arbitrator.

NOTICE: This engagement letter contains provisions requiring arbitration of fee disputes. Before Client signs this Engagement Letter, Client should consider consulting with another lawyer about the advisability of making an agreement with mandatory arbitration requirements. Arbitration proceedings are ways to resolve disputes without use of the court system. By entering into agreements that require arbitration as the way to resolve fee disputes, Client gives up (waives) its right to go to court to resolve those disputes by a judge or jury. These are important rights that should not be given up without careful consideration.

If any of the information in this letter is not consistent with Your understanding of our agreement, please contact us before signing this agreement. Otherwise, please sign the agreement where indicated below and return a copy to the Firm.

We are pleased to have this opportunity to represent You in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Robert Garson

STATEMENT OF YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

An attorney is providing You with this document to inform You of what You, as a client, are entitled to by law or by custom. To help prevent any misunderstanding between You and the attorney, please read this document carefully.

If You ever have any questions about these rights, or about the way Your case is being handled once You retain the attorney, You are responsible to ask Your attorney. Your attorney should be readily available to represent Your best interests and to keep You informed about Your case.

An attorney may not refuse to represent You on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, age national origin or disability.

You are entitled to an attorney who will be capable of handling Your case; show You courtesy and consideration at all times; represent You zealously; and preserve Your confidences and secrets that You reveal in the course of the relationship. to the extent permitted by law. You are responsible to communicate honestly. civilly and respectfully with Your attorney.

If You are hiring an attorney, You and Your attorney are required to sign a written retainer agreement which must set forth, in plain language, the nature of the relationship and the details of the fee arrangement. Before You sign the retainer agreement. You are responsible to read it and ask the attorney any questions You have before You sign it. At Your request, and before You sign the agreement, You are entitled to have Your attorney clarify in writing any of its terms or include additional provisions.

You are entitled to fully understand the proposed rates and retainer fee before You sign a retainer agreement. as in any other contract. The retainer fee You pay to the attorney, as is written in the retainer agreement, may not be enough money to pay for all the time that the attorney works on Your case.

You may refuse to enter into any fee arrangement that You find unsatisfactory.

An attorney may not request a fee that is contingent on the securing of a divorce or on the amount of money or property that may be obtained.

An attorney may not request a retainer fee that is non-refundable. That is, should You discharge the attorney, or should the attorney withdraw from the case with Court permission, before the retainer has been used up, the attorney is entitled to be paid commensurate with the work performed on Your case and any expenses. The attorney must return to You any balance of the retainer that has not been used. However, the attorney may enter into a minimum fee arrangement with You that provides for the payment of a specific amount below which the fee will not fall based upon the attorney's handling of the case to its conclusion.

You are entitled to know the approximate number of attorneys and other legal staff members who will be working on Your case at any given time and what You will be charged for the services of each. You are entitled to know in advance how You will be asked to pay legal fees and expenses, and how the retainer, if any, will be spent.

You may be responsible at the beginning of the case or before or after the trial to contribute to or pay the other party's attorney's fees and other costs if the Court has ordered You to do so.

The other party may be responsible to contribute to or to pay Your attorney's fees. If the Court orders the other party to do so. However, if the other party fails to pay the Court ordered fee. You are still responsible for the fees owed to Your attorney and experts in Your case.

You are required to pay for court filing fees, process servers as well as fees for expert reports, testimony, depositions and/or trial testimony and You may seek reimbursement from the other party.

If You engage in conduct which is found to be frivolous or meant to intentionally delay the case, You could be fined or sanctioned and/or responsible for additional fees.

At Your request, and after Your attorney has had a reasonable opportunity to investigate Your case, You are entitled to be given an estimate of approximate future costs of Your case.

That estimate shall be made in good faith but may be subject to change due to facts and circumstances that develop during Your case. There are no guarantees that the cost of Your case will be as originally estimated.

You are entitled to receive a written, itemized bill on a regular basis, at least every 60 days. You are expected to review the itemized bills sent to You by Your attorney, and to raise any objections or errors in a timely manner in writing. Time spent in discussion or explanation of bills will not be charged to You.

You are responsible to be honest and truthful in all discussions with Your attorney, and to provide all relevant information and documentation to enable her or him to competently prepare Your case. Attorneys and clients must make reasonable efforts to maintain open communication during business hours throughout the representation. An attorney may seek to be relieved as Your attorney if You are not honest and truthful with her or him.

You are entitled to be kept informed of the status of Your case, and to be provided with copies of correspondence and documents prepared on Your behalf or received from the court or Your adversary.

Your attorney is required to discuss the following with You: a) the automatic orders that are in effect once either party files a summons with notice: b) the law that provides for the financial support of the children, the Child Support Standards Act. if You and the other party have children under the age of twenty-one; and c) the law that provides for the financial support of the parties, the Maintenance Guidelines Statute.

You are responsible to be present and on time in court at the time that conferences, oral arguments, hearings and trials are conducted unless excused by the Judge or the part rules of the assigned Judge.

You are entitled to make the ultimate decision on the objectives to be pursued in Your case, and to make the final decision regarding the settlement of Your case. Your attorney has the right to send You written communications if Your attorney disagrees with how You want Your case handled.

Your attorney's written retainer agreement must specify under what circumstances he or she might seek to withdraw as Your attorney for nonpayment of legal fees. If an action or proceeding is pending, the court may give Your attorney a "charging lien," which entitles Your attorney to payment for services already rendered at the end of the case out of the proceeds of the final order or judgment. In some cases, Your attorney may exercise a "retaining lien" which, subject to Court proceedings, may allow them to keep Your file as security.

You are under no legal obligation to sign a confession of judgment or promissory note, or to agree to a lien or mortgage on Your home to pay for legal fees. Your attorney's written retainer agreement must specify whether, and under what circumstances, such security may be requested. In no event may such security interest be obtained by Your attorney without prior court approval and notice to Your adversary. An attorney's security interest in the marital residence cannot be foreclosed against You.

You are entitled to have Your attorney's best efforts exerted on Your behalf, but no particular results can be guaranteed.

If You entrust money with an attorney for an escrow deposit in Your case, the attorney must safeguard the escrow in a special bank account. You are entitled to a written escrow agreement, a written receipt, and a complete record concerning the escrow. When the terms of the escrow agreement have been performed, the attorney must promptly make payment of the escrow to all persons who are entitled to it.

If You are expecting Your attorney to prepare and file documents related to the transfer of a house, co-op or lease, that must be specified in the retainer agreement. The signing of an agreement or Court order that transfers title does not transfer a co-op apartment or a house. A separate document must be prepared and filed.

In the event any dispute arises concerning service by the Firm, the dispute shall be settled by the Legal Fee Arbitration Program sponsored by the Florida Bar; in the event the dispute involves an issue which the Legal Fee Arbitration Program is unwilling or unable to adjudicate, the dispute shall be resolved through binding arbitration in Miami, Florida under the auspices of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) before a single arbitrator selected pursuant to, and operating under, the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA as then in effect and Florida law. By executing this letter, You make a binding and final election to arbitrate in accordance herewith. The award of the arbitrator shall be final, conclusive and binding, and judgment thereon may be entered by any court of competent jurisdiction. The expenses of the arbitration shall be paid by the non-prevailing party, as determined by the arbitrator.
