Richard L. Thornburgh, Esquire
Assitant Attorney General
Department of Juctice
Constitution Avenue
between 9th & 10th Streets, N.W.
Washington D.C.

Dear Mr. Thornburgh,

I am writing to inform you of an unintended error by the Arab Information Center.

As you may be aware, we are registered under the Foreign Agents Registration Act and from time to time distribute information and place advertisements in the press. It is our uniform practice to comply with all the rules and regulations including that of appending the notice required by the Foreign Agents Registration Act and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder.

Unfortunately, we recently ran an advertisement in the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Chicago Tribune, Dallas News, Washington Post and Christian Science Monitor which, although identifying the Arab Information Center and giving its address, did not carry the required notice. I very much regret this oversight and assure you we will redouble our vigilence with a view to seeing to it that such mistakes will not happen again. I would appreciate it if you would take account of the unintended and exceptional nature of the omission and our intention to do our utmost to avoid any repetition of this omission.

Sincerely,

Amin Hilmy II
